DORSET Brewing Company has launched a £500,000 expansion which will switch its main brewing operation from Weymouth to a site near Dorchester.

The company, which hopes to retain premises at Brewers Quay for its corporate headquarters, plans to use a new site at Crossways to increase its brewing fourfold to more than two million pints per year.

Four new jobs could be created to increase the workforce to 12 and owner Giles Smeath also plans to create several new beers.

He said: "I have recently returned from San Francisco where I agreed a deal for all the new plant we need at Crossways."

"The US micro brewing market is far ahead of ours and it shows in the quality of equipment which enables them to brew far more imaginative beer styles than are currently available here. We plan to follow them."

At the end of this month West Dorset will once again be celebrating its rich agricultural surroundings with the annual Melplash Show.

The show is a steadfast event in the diary of local people of all ages and attracts visitors from far and wide.

This week's 60 Second Interview is with the show's new Chairman Nigel Jones. Having first been a part of the show 30-years-ago, as a car park attendant, Nigel has seen the show grow into one of the regions principle events.

In his spare time Nigel is a big sports fan. Having played rugby for Dorchester for many years, Nigel now intends to turn his focus to cricket after a knee operation later in the year.

Nigel is also a proud co-owner of the racehorse "The Jazz Musician" who this season raced at some of the top courses in the country.

The Melplash Show is on for one-day only on Thursday, August 26th.

■ HOW much preparation goes into the Melplash Show?

I don't think people would credit how much background work goes into it, certainly from a quasi-professional role like the secretary and the assistants here in the office. Behind that there is also a huge amount of voluntary assistance, work done by an army of different people and without them the show wouldn't work. It's a fantastic testament to the good will of the local community.

■ HOW have you seen the show develop since your first involvement 30-years-ago?

Immeasurably, from a relatively small country show it is now a principle show in the area. What you will see in agricultural country shows is that some of them have gone very commercial and some have disappeared altogether. Whereas with the Melplash Show the whole idea is to try and portray that authentic traditional country image as well as being well-organised and slick as possible, catering for what everybody wants. We have a very diverse audience bearing in mind where we are. We are one of the only, if not the only show located this close to the sea, so we have an awful lot of holidaymakers who come to the show as well as the indigenous population.

■ WHAT makes the show special compared to others?

I think exactly that, it's orientation towards its traditional nature. It has all the ingredients that people want and it isn't trying to be a commercial show that some have moved towards, yet equally it is so much more than just a country fete.

The Devon County Show is now a huge commercial event, we are very much in that traditional niche and that's where we intend to stay.

■ WHAT have been the highlights to you from past shows?

The highlights for me have been my two years as vice chairman, making sure everything has gone alright. From an organisational point of view to get through the day, making sure everyone has enjoyed it and that everything ran on time is the main goal.

■ WHAT are you particularly looking forward to this year?

I'm looking forward to the main ring attractions. We have got the white helmets motorcycle display team and as a sort of antithesis to them for people who don't want noisy motorbikes we have also got the fabulous Rockwood dog display team who are just extraordinary. All the cattle and the sheep classes will be tremendous; we have lots of entries there. All the horse classes again have lots of entries. A new thing we introduced last year is the By the Sea marquee because of where we are we thought the agriculture of the sea is just as important as the agriculture of the land, so that's lot of good fun. This year we also have the curry competition, sponsored by Mr and Mrs Michaud who grow the world's hottest chilli and it is judged by the Taj Mahal in Bridport.

■ WHO would be your three dream guests at a dinner party?

I just want people who are funny. I would like Jeremy Clarkson, I think he is just hilarious. He's not PC and is generally upfront and fairly rude and difficult, I find him extremely amusing. I'd like Tommy Cooper who is my favourite comedian of all time. Then I'd like somebody equally funny, the cricket commentator Brian Johnson.

■ WHAT was the last book you read, CD you listened to and film you watched?

The last film I watched was Toy Story 3 3D with my daughter, the last book that I read was the autobiography of Paul Nicholls the racehorse trainer and the last CD I listened to was Eva Cassidy.

Six months to come up with a proposal to restart refuge

A CAMPAIGN to restart a women's refuge in Weymouth has been given a six-month lifeline.

Councillors have postponed proposals to sell the former refuge site and opted instead to consider the situation again at a management committee meeting in January 2011.

Before this they have authorised council officers to negotiate with all parties which have already expressed an interest in setting up and running a refuge in Weymouth. They reached their decisions after hearing from legendary campaigner Erin Pizzey who founded the women's refuge movement in 1971.

She backed the council retaining the refuge building for the sake of women and children "marinated in violence" because without the building the group would not be able to get back on its feet.

She cautiously welcomed the six-month window, saying that a year would have been better but adding: "We must now work hard to complete our case which I am sure we can."

"The extra time will let us firm up bids to run a refuge and give us a secure future."

Earlier Ms Pizzey told View: "It is very frustrating because all along the Weymouth refuge has been so fragile. "It was closed yet Weymouth and Portland had the highest record of domestic violence in Dorset."

Weymouth and Portland domestic violence and abuse forum chairman Mary Watson said there were 600 cases

by Harry Walton

■ CAMPAIGNER Erin Pizzey, who started the women's refuge movement in 1971, spoke to councillor at their meeting reported to police in 2008-2009 "and heaven only knows how many more that weren't".

Other speakers highlighted the need for the building to be retained and the need for places but also the need to ensure this at minimal or no cost to the cash-strapped council.

West Dorset councillor Mollie Rennie said final closure of the refuge would increase demand on other services which would be "robbing Peter to pay Paul".

The management committee meeting then voted 5-4 against Councillor Peter Chapman's proposal to restrict the time for investigations to four months and, if nothing suitable emerged, to sell the building and use cash to boost the council's capital programme.

They then unanimously backed Councillor Howard Legg's proposal to make no decision for six months to allow time for refuge offers to be firmed up so a real solution wasn't hampered by "haste".

Current offers include a business plan from a Bournemouth charity, an expression of interest from a social landlord and an outline plan from the Friends of the Weymouth Refuge.

South Dorset's Lib Dem Parliamentary Spokesperson Ros Kayes, who co-authored the bid from the Friends Group with Mary Watson and Councillor Gill Taylor, said "We are now getting concrete offers and the figures are beginning to add up."

Councillor Taylor said: "The proposals would be a combination of public service providers, charities and a community organisation together with the support of the council. We could make this a landmark project. It has the support of thousands of local people who signed the petition last year to keep the refuge open. In the last six months we have come a long way and it would be very sad to not be able to take this project further."

Election change?

WEYMOUTH and Portland could switch its elections to a new process which sees all councillors elected once every four years.

Currently 12 of the 36 borough councillors stand for re-election every year.

But the idea for change emerged from talks to help Weymouth and Portland find much needed financial savings for future years.

An informal group of councillors has now been asked to prepare appropriate public consultation measures with a view to full council making a decision on the idea in November.

Art exhibition

MORE than 100 paintings have gone on show in the Weymouth Art Group exhibition.

The event at Weymouth Library will run until Saturday, August 15th and entry is free.

Group chairman Rod Stone said: "I think that the paintings we will be exhibiting show that the group is very talented."

"We hope that people will come along and make their own minds up as well as taking advantage of a chance to vote for their favourite painting."

Brewery expansion

Brewers Quay in 1996 as the Quay Brewery before becoming the Dorset Brewing Company more than five years ago.

He said: "We don't want to move our headquarters from Weymouth and we plan to become part of the new redevelopment of Brewers Quay by retaining a retail site here with offices."

"We have had to move the brewing side of things to a larger site at Crossways because we were growing so fast that Brewers Quay just didn't have the space to support us."

"The new Crossways premises is in two large industrial units, one which will provide our brewing facility and one which will contain storage and distribution."

"We hope to include a few of the ideas I gained during a visit to the Sierra Nevada and other US brewery sites because they are virtually self-contained including growing their own hops and producing their own power."

"If we can't do that immediately then we hope to do it within five years and become the new face of micro brewing in Dorset."

Weymouth and Portland economic spokesman Councillor Mike Goodman said: "We recognise Dorset Brewing Company's need to find larger premises but we are pleased they still plan to retain their corporate headquarters at Brewers Quay."

"It ensure that Brewers Quay continues its long association with brewing and we wish them well in their business expansion plans."

All set for a fantastic carnival

ORGANISERS are urging more than 100,000 spectators to make the 2010 Weymouth Carnival a massive charity success.

Motorised floats return by popular public demand and the Rotary Clubs of Weymouth, who are spearheading the town's biggest day of the year on Wednesday, August 18th, believe it could be their biggest ever donation to charity.

Chairman Robert Sedgebeer said: "Local businesses have really supported us this year and without them we would not be looking at the fantastic event we will be staging next Wednesday."

"Carnival has taken a slightly different twist this year with a lot more music including three seafront stages and big names such as Alvin Stardust performing.

"We hope to make 2010 a carnival to remember and we urge everyone to come along and support it."

He was also delighted at the news that the world famous Red Arrows aerobatic team has overcome its ejector seat problems and will be staging its usual spectacular performance.

One of the biggest carnival events still being finalised is the traditional carnival ball on Saturday, August 21st at the Nothe Fort which is already sold out on the theme of Hollywood's Oscar Night.

It is being organised by the charity Ladies Alive whose member Georgina Grayson said: "It will be a fabulous night to round off carnival week."

"The Nothe Fort has just celebrated its 150th anniversary and we are delighted to be able to stage the ball in such an atmospheric venue."

"Everything we raise from the ball goes to boost carnival funds and we hope to raise even more money on the night."

"Our top prizes include a hot air balloon trip, tickets for the English National Opera and afternoon tea at The Ritz...and you can't get much more varied prizes than that!"

■ THE Red Arrows will return to the skies over Weymouth for carnival

Local sheep farmers celebrate Melplash competition results

SHEEP farmers across the region are celebrating following the results of the Melplash Agricultural Society Flocks competition.

Dorset farmers from Abbotsbury to Beaminster were rewarded for their shepherding skills and flock management with the judges looking for good sheep husbandry and profitability.

To be crowned winners, farmers were assessed, among other things, on the management and handling of the flock, flock conformation, the quality and condition of the sheep, how they are performing and the number of lambs produced per head.

This year the judge was Mr Tony Swain who was given the difficult task of judging 14 different flocks in the area; in each class there were different breeds and different sheep management methods used.

The judging took place over two days and the team travelled over 180 miles in the process.

Mr Philip Baker, who organised the two days on behalf of the Melplash Agricultural Society, said: "On behalf of the Melplash Agricultural Society, I would like to thank all those farmers who took part in this year's flock competition and to congratulate the winners."

"The passion and enthusiasm for their sheep was a pleasure to see.

"Our special thanks must go to the judge, Tony Swain, for finding the time to judge our competition.

"It was some feat, particularly as many of the flocks were of different breeds and managed under different systems."

WINNERS

Best Flock of 15-50 head of Ewes: Winner of the Melplash Agricultural Society Perpetual Plaque was Mr J Studley, Crewkerne with his flock of Texels.

2nd - Mrs M. Jones, Wootton Fitzpaine; 3rd - Mr JP Boden, Beaminster.

Ewes: Winner of The JRB Bowditch Perpetual Cup was the Fooks Bros, South Poorton, with their flock of Poll Dorset.

Heliport to get Olympics off to a flying start

A NEW heliport facility is set to open at Southwell Park on Portland.

Elite Helicopters and park owners Compass Point Estates have signed a two-year joint venture deal with an option on five years to provide a heliport insupport of sailing events for the 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games.

The heliport established at The Venue hotel, which will also support all preliminary events taking place throughout 2011, will be open to helicopter operators, private owners and news and media helicopters.

Elite will also be offering direct Portland-London flights and an air taxi shuttle service from selected locations to the north of Weymouth with a view to providing a handy facility for officials, sponsors, teams, media groups and general visitors keen to beat traffic problems that events could generate.

Sightseeing tours and short pleasure flights will also use the heliport to showcase Dorset's stunning Jurassic Coast and all it has to offer.

Elite director Glenn Curtis said they will be opening an operations office at Southwell Park this month to prepare for setting the heliport up in tandem with planning applications which Southwell chief executive Lee Paul said were due to be lodged soon.

Helicopters are planned on site throughout 2011 and 2012 and will be available for charter, sightseeing and

by Harry Walton

media flights.

Mr Curtis said they operated a variety of machines including Robinson R44, Bell JetRanger and LongRanger and the AS350 Squirrel ideal for passenger transfers and filming and photographic flights while other machines included the Augusta A109 Power and Grand VIP.

He added: "The Venue at Southwell Park offers an ideal site for this new heliport.

"It is our intention to offer a wide range of services for our own customers and those of other helicopter operators wishing to reach Portland with the least possible hassle and to a convenient location within a short distance of the harbour."

Mr Paul said they were delighted to work with Elite and added: "We have already contracted with the London Organising Committee of the Olympic Games for them to take The Venue hotel during the Olympic Games in 2012 and are presently discussing LOCOG also taking it during the 2011 Olympic test event.

"The heliport will become an integral part of facilitating these events, enabling easy and quick access for the business community and providing an added attraction which tourists can benefit from when visiting the area."

Nothe Fort's 150th anniversary

■ GOING through a drill exercise.

by Harry Walton

TIME ticked back one and a half centuries when a Victorian Fayre was held to mark the 150th anniversary of Weymouth's Nothe Fort.

Games from a bygone era were enthusiastically played by visitors who tackled everything from hoopla and a coconut shy to stocks and a treasure hunt.

There were also ghost talks, face painting, maypole dancing, a street organ, Weymouth Concert Brass and a balloon race.

Hundreds of spectators were also entertained by the Nothe Fort Artillery firing their cannon and doing musket and other drills.

There was also a stand marking the centenary of the Girl Guide movement where people could try games such as finding sweets and enjoy a display of historical guiding equipment including a beel tent, lights and a campfire.

Fayre organiser Jane Chandler said: "We were delighted at the large number of people who came in to enjoy the fayre which was a real success."

"This was a one off event for our 150th anniversary and I think everyone agreed that we marked the occasion in style with a lot of music, a lot of bangs and a lot of people."

Anglers to enjoy a day out on the ocean waves

MEMBERS of the British Disabled Angling Association are taking to the waves on board Weymouth's MV Freedom for a day's fishing.

The vessel is adapted to take elderly, infirm and disabled adults and children on trips around the Weymouth and Portland coast.

She is manned by volunteers and their future aim is to provide availability for disabled anglers nationally through the Association whose president, Terry Mosely will be among those fishing this Saturday, August 16th.

Weymouth Angling Centre owner Andy Selby has volunteered his services on board and Asda supermarket have offered the Association car parking for the day.

On September 11th-12th there will be a special Dartmoor challenge in aid of MV Freedom and the Help for Heroes fund.

Teams of four people are being asked to register on the website www.dartmoorchallenge4charity.co.uk or by calling in at the Kings Arms by the Town Bridge in Weymouth with a minimum of £120 to enter.

The challenge is to leave Dartmoor Brewery in Princetown and walk 15 miles across Dartmoor with an empty nine gallon beer barrel.

Entrants will then camp overnight at the River Dart Country Park with a team quiz, bar and entertainment provided followed the next day by a cooked breakfast.

After that they must return to Brewers Quay, Weymouth, by 4pm by any safe and legal means using the most novel and interesting mode of transport possible.

The day will end with a barrel roll from Brewers Quay to the Kings Arms for the official finish, some fundraising and singer Sheryl Lee in the Kings Arms.

The event is being sponsored by the Kings Arms and Duke of Cornwall in Weymouth and the Dartmoor Brewery.

20p to spend a penny!

by Harry Walton

council will soon be faced with some hard choices, so it is vital that careful planning is put into practice."

Councillor Gill Taylor

said such decision were never popular but free toilets often had poor facilities and Swannery revenue could be used to improve the facility.

The meeting agreed that capital costs for the scheme should be met from the Invest to Save budget.

Mr Chapman added: "It is important to bear in mind that this is an experiment.

"Poor facilities are a deterrent to bigger and better tourism, but it is just an experiment. If it doesn't work it's not the end of the world."

PEOPLE will soon have to pay 20 pence for the convenience of using public toilets in Weymouth's Swannery car park.

The one-year pilot scheme to cover toilet maintenance costs has been backed by members of the council's management committee

It forms part of Weymouth and Portland's drive to reduce spending ahead of the Government's financial review and, if successful, the scheme may be rolled out across several other suitable public conveniences across the borough.

Finance and assets spokesmen Councillor Peter Chapman said: "The council is committed to providing decent facilities to residents and introducing turnstiles on public conveniences means that maintenance and improvements can be carried out while funds previously earmarked for these purposes in the council's budget can be freed up to enable other vital services to continue during the financial downturn.

"The impending government financial review this October means that the

"I was particularly pleased from the social side of things because it gave our tenants a chance to meet people from the community. The event was a credit to the main organiser Stephanie Turner."

Residents can have a say over the licensing of sexual entertainment

WEYMOUTH and Portland residents are to be consulted over developing a policy to cover the licensing of sex establishments.

Changes to the law now mean that local councils can have more power over the regulation of venues classified as providing sexual entertainment with the introduction of a sexual entertainments policy.

Once drawn up, residents will be able to comment on the policy during an eight-week consultation period.

Members of Weymouth and Portland's management committee were told that, under the new policy, operators of sexual entertainment venues would need to apply for a new sexual entertainment licence which is separate from the usual premises licence.

Previously a sex establishment licence was not normally required for striptease or lap dancing venues where the relevant permissions for adult entertainment would have been included on a premises licence issued under the 2003 Licensing Act.

This has now been amended by Section 27 of the 2009 Policing and Crime Act, the change to come into force on April 1, 2011.

Community safety spokesman Councillor Ian James said: "Weymouth does not have a high volume of sexual entertainments venues, but I welcome the news that the Council is to have more power over the issue of licenses for such venues.

"The consultation will also give local people a say over the regulation of lap dancing and similar venues in the borough."

The meeting agreed to ask policy committee colleagues to develop such a policy and their recommendation must now be approved by full council.

First look at big plans for Brewers Quay complex

■ CHRIS McDougall with an exhibition model of the proposed Brewers Quay development

RESIDENTS have had a chance to get their first glimpse of a £15 million scheme to redevelop the Brewers Quay complex in Weymouth.

An exhibition of plans for the site on Hope Square included a new 90-bed hotel, a restaurant and café, shops, eight residential apartment, eight holiday apartments and a new exhibition and event space.

Brewers Quay LLP, which is producing the scheme, hopes it will take the site into the next century.

Partner Chris McDougall said: "One of the main points of the development is to ensure that Weymouth Museum has a bigger and better new home double its current size which is suitable for the museum's future.

"The 90-bed hotel will anchor the scheme and make it financially viable while we also hope to get on board as many of the existing tenants as possible.

"The 16 apartments are being designed in such a way that they fit in seamlessly with the existing Brewers Quay structure.

"Half will be private residential and half linked to the hotel perhaps for use as larger family-style holiday units.

"A lot of the original features of the building are being kept and it is fair to say that nothing is changing dramatically."

He added they hoped planners approved of their attempts to develop the site without losing its character.

He said: "This exhibition was part of the development process and ensured that local people got a chance to have their say on our ideas for Brewers Quay.

"We will now use those comments to help us put together a planning application this autumn.

"If that proves successful we would hope to start work early in 2011 and to complete in time for the Olympic sailing events being staged in Weymouth and Portland in July 2012."

Plans for £1 million Chesil beach centre extension backed COUNCILLORS have backed funding proposals for a £1 million extension to the Chesil Beach Centre between Portland and Weymouth.

They agreed to support the project being taken forward to bid for a £500,000 grant from the Heritage Lottery Fund with another £512,000 coming from a variety of sources including £100,000 each from the Crown Estate and Fine Family Foundation and £60,000 from Weymouth and Portland council.

If the Lottery bid is successful then the extension will be developed in partnership with Dorset County Council and the Dorset Wildlife Trust.

The scheme has been planned since the Dorset coast was designated as a Jurassic Coast World Heritage Site in order to help interpret its globally significant status.

A planning application was approved in 2008 and a Round 1 bid to the Heritage Lottery Fund for £550,000 in the same year was also successfully agreed. Now preparations are being made for the second round of bids for further funding.

If successful, plans for the extension include improved access for the disabled, enhanced educational,

by Harry Walton

learning and community engagement opportunities and facilities and lecture room space to accommodate educational visits.

There will also be involvement with community groups and volunteers, improved conservation access, conserved and improved natural wildlife habitats and enhanced visitor facilities.

Environment spokesman Councillor Brendan Webster said: "Chesil Beach and Fleet are Special Areas of Conservation.

"It is important that we have the facilities in place which allow this to be both protected and enjoyed. I believe that the proposed developments to the existing Chesil Beach centre are a good way of achieving this."

Weymouth and Portland chief executive Tom Grainger said the council's £60,000 would help attract nearly £1 million and members agreed to fund the money from general reserves on the basis that there would be no net additional revenue charges to the council from the scheme.

The Christian Column

AS I SEE IT ...

by Geoff Treleven

A different perspective

DISTANT views can vary enormously, depending on our location. Similarly, points of view can differ; depending where we are coming from. The real problems arise when our arrogance gets in the way of reason.

If we approach the subject of religion by basing our conclusions on the blatant failures of the worst Christians we can find (or even churches), we are not likely to want much association with them. Their actions may be newsworthy, but not encouraging.

Assuming all I wanted were excuses for not becoming a Christian I would have no difficulty in finding reasons. All of them totally invalid but made to sound plausible. But if my approach was an unbiased search of the evidence, including a study of relevant scriptures, I would see things from a different angle.

If I were given a worthless counterfeit £20 note (and I am sure they exist), I could foolishly refuse to accept a £20 note ever again. But imagine my loss. Meanwhile, I am an imperfect Christian attending an imperfect church and worshipping God with many imperfect friends, all learning together. So if you want an example to follow, look directly to Jesus. He alone is perfect.

■ Rory the Tiger at the holiday show with Councillor Roger Allen and Leigh Rice

Holiday homes at static caravan show

SEVEN holiday homes worth more than £270,000 are on show at Weymouth Pavilion forecourt.

The display forms part of the Littlesea static caravan show and is the first event since parent company Haven's new sponsorship and partnership deal with the Weymouth and Portland council leisure and events team.

The deal will help them with their extensive programme of events and includes branding of tourism leaflets, events brochures, promotional sites in conjunction with major events and festivals and the seafarers caravan show.

Littlesea general manager David Bennett said: "The relationship that we have embraced over previous year with the council's leisure and events section is always developing as we work together to continuously increase awareness of our holiday park in the area

"Our commitment to being pro active in trialling new and innovative schemes is well supported by the council and we place a high value on this partnership and how it clearly benefits both parties and the local community."

Weymouth and Portland tourism spokesman Councillor Roger Allen said: "Forging partnerships with local firms to promote their businesses and the borough is good for business and good for jobs. It is our ambition that more businesses will look to engage with our events team to promote themselves through well publicised events."

Littlesea caravan sales manager Leigh Rice said previous shows had sold up to £1 million worth of homes.

He added: "What makes this show so popular is that people can walk in here and, for less than £28,000, walk out with a brand new holiday home including all site fees."

It is the fifth such show organised by Littlesea and Leigh said 2010 sales were averaging one a day.

The show still has several days to run before it ends on Sunday, August 15th.

RAINFALL was down nearly 30 per cent according to the latest Weymouth weather figures for July.

The town averages more than 35mm for the month but this year barely had 25mm.

Weymouth weatherman Bob Poots added that total rainfall this year is also lower than average, down more than 78mm at 301.8mm.

Sunshine also suffered with levels more than four hours below average for July at just under 231 hours, but levels for the year are still 233 hours up at more than 1,352 hours.

Fog was recorded on July 7th and 20th and winds during July were very light and rarely reached double figures at the morning observation. The highest gust of 40mph came on July 14th.

Temperatures were all above average for July with the average maximum up 0.4 Centigrade at 20.7C, the average minimum up 2C at 14.5C, the average mean temperature up 1.5C at 17.6C and the average sea temperature up 1.6C at 17.3C.

Dorset cadets parade inspected in Weymouth

A CELEBRATION parade has been held to mark the 150th anniversary of the Dorset Army Cadet Force.

The event at Chickerell Camp formed part of national celebrations involving more than 40,000 cadets.

More than 500 people watched the parade with civic dignitaries including the Lord Lieutenant of Dorset Mrs Valerie Pitt-Rivers, Weymouth and Portland Mayor Paul Kimber, Portland Town Mayor David Thurston, South Dorset MP Richard

by Harry Walton

Drax and regional brigade commander Brigadier Steve Hodder.

More than 250 cadets were inspected by Mrs Pitt-Rivers before packed grandstands enjoyed drill demonstrations and command competitions.

Spectators were then able to tour static display stands covering all cadet training activities from fieldcraft to the Duke of Edinburgh's Award Scheme.

The grand finale was a gun run competition involving all four Dorset cadet companies.

Dorset ACF commandant Lieutenant Colonel Gordon Davies said: "This was a massively important day which gave us a chance to demonstrate to parents and guests the value of the Army Cadet Force."

Weymouth Matters

A personal View by HARRY WALTON

Let the children have a good look

GIANTS rule this country and you only have to go to a Weymouth building site to see what I mean.

The new community fire station being built off Radipole Lane is largely hemmed in by 10ft hoardings plastered with logos, scheme advertising and comments praising the site's future interaction with local people.

All well and good and the contractors have even built five windows into the hoardings at head height so that interested passers by can follow what's going on inside the site.

But in this age of scrupulously equal opportunities for all there are also five much lower windows at child height to allow eager youngsters a view of all the big machines, men in hats and holes in the ground so beloved of children.

The sad thing is that two of the windows are almost totally obscured by regrown hedge and another two offer lines of sight through heavy clumps of weed or mounds of rubble.

The fifth window does manage to offer a tantalizing glimpse of the site but it is again through a rapidly spreading clump of weeds.

So Giants. Fee, fi, fo, fum, clear those windows before children come!

Please just get on with it!

NOTHING irritates drivers stuck in a roadworks queue more than to see a load of workmen stood around doing nothing.

To be fair to this group looking down into a trench in Weymouth there may have been no work going on but there was some discussion taking place as I walked by.

It seemed that something out of sight was broken.

The first man shook his head dubiously, the second just looked grimly into the hole while the third and fourth men were clearly well hacked off.

It was left to the fifth man, the gaffer presumably, to provide a technical summing up for the situation.

He said: "Right then, so we're all agreed. It's knackered."

They were all still looking down into the trench when I went out of earshot but I could hear what motorists thought of the inactivity.

"Get on with it" was one of the more printable comments as I overtook the queue of vehicles on foot.

But they couldn't get on with it, could they, because it, whatever "it" was, was "knackered".

All fun and games but no respect

ANGRY pensioners were unimpressed at the antics of a boy kicking a beach ball about in St Thomas Street, Weymouth.

No one minds a bit of high spirits, but I have to say this boy was careless of property and people in the extreme.

He kicked the ball full blast against a variety of shop windows up and down the street, had no control over where the beach ball went afterwards and seemed oblivious of the glares he was getting from people hit or narrowly missed by the ball.

As I said, all this didn't go down too well with watching pensioners who quite rightly asked the obvious question. Why didn't one or both of this boy's parents make him behave a bit better?

I can't answer this because both parents either didn't care or didn't want to expose themselves to angry public comment.

Neither appeared the whole time I was queueing to use a cashpoint or when I was walking away down the street and all the while this boy was kicking seven bells out of his beach ball as he darted among pedestrians who clearly felt uncomfortable with what he was doing.

Sure the boy has a right to play but not at the expense of annoying so many ordinary people in a public street.

My top tips for barbecue beginners

IT'S that barbecue time of year when people vie with each other to take a perfectly good piece of meat and set fire to it.

I'm relatively new to this game having probably only hosted about 30 barbecues in my entire life, so here are a few tips for all you newcomers like me.

Begin by alerting both your nearest neighbours to the barbecue. You're on good terms with them but this can change rapidly if their lines of clean washing are obscured in rolling clouds of charcoal smoke.

Likewise take great care where you site your barbecue as unleashing a furnace near the wife's favourite clump of flowers is unlikely to go down too well and any excuse about stray gusts of wind will draw a withering response.

Caution must also be exercised over the quantity of lighter fuel used since beards and eyebrows can be gone in a flash and take weeks to grow back.

Having caused the minimum of garden damage to get the barbecue going always choose a decent quality of meat to cook.

Too much fat in the food will swiftly transform into liquid fat trickling on to the coals and shortly afterwards your food, the barbecue and distressingly large areas of your garden will be obscured by flames.

Always ask your guests hiding in the far corner of the garden how they like their meat done as this displays an air of professionalism and knowledge which helps to allay any suspicion that you have little real idea what you are doing.

Finally when eating the lightly carbonized meal you have prepared always make sure that your doctor's number is left near a phone for convenient use later in the night.

◆ Russell Brown

Your chance to cook with Dorset's top chefs...

DO you love cooking for family and friends and experimenting with new recipes? Maybe you dream of winning Masterchef or winning a Michelin star. If you really know your onions and you're passionate about great food, how would you like to cook with two of Dorset's finest chefs at the Dorset County Show on 5th September?

We're offering one lucky reader the opportunity to be sous chef with Mat Follas, of The Wild Garlic, Beaminster www.thewildgarlic.co.uk and Russell Brown, from Sienna in Dorchester www.siennarestaurant.co.uk

Mat and Russell will go head to head in a celebrity chef cook-off, each vying to wow the crowd with their individual take on a variety of dishes. As sous chef, our winner will help each chef to prepare his dish, whilst picking up masses of inspiration, techniques and delicious tastings along the way.

Mat Follas has quickly established his reputation as one of our most talented chefs, having won Masterchef in 2009. Mat specialises in using wild produce and local seasonal ingredients. Russell Brown recently won a Michelin star for his seasonally inspired cuisine, characterised by his use of the finest available ingredients.

To enter, please send us your favourite recipe (starter, main or pudding) and tell us in 50 words what you'd bring to the table in terms of your skills and enthusiasm at the cook-off. Send your entry to Dorset County Show Cook Off, View From Newspapers, Unit 3, St Michael's Business Centre, Church Street, Lyme Regis, Dorset DT7 3DB or email pemedia@pemedia.co.uk Closing date is 27th August. A winner will be selected via telephone interview from a shortlist. The editor's decision is final.

More teddy bear fun

WEYMOUTH'S Friends of Wyke Gardens have staged a very successful teddy bears' picnic.

The event, in aid of general funds for the gardens, included story telling, juggling, plants, cakes, hopscotch, chalking, skittles and flower spotting.

Friends chairman Richard Price said: "We were just helping people to have a bit of fun during the school holidays and to enjoy the park."

Highest accolade for sports and leisure provider in Weymouth

SPORTS and Leisure Management, which operates leisure facilities for Weymouth and Portland council, has been named Leisure Operator of the Year 2010.

The honour came at the recent FLAME Awards run by the Fitness Industry Association in recognition of SLM's commitment to engaging with local communities about activity and raising leisure management standards within the leisure industry.

FIA executive director David Stalker said: "The FLAME Award is the highest accolade you can win in the health and fitness industry and winning it is a great endorsement for SLM which is truly the very best in the business.

"They beat off stiff competition to prove that they have the best combination of technical, professional and people skills in the business."

Weymouth and Portland leisure spokesman Councillor Roger Allen said: "SLM has been operating the leisure centre for Weymouth and Portland council for three and a half years and has always demonstrated a commitment to engaging with the local community.

"The council is committed to working with partners in order to provide residents with well-run facilities for the people of Weymouth and Portland and we are delighted that their work has been recognised and rewarded"

After collecting the award on the evening, managing director David Bibby said: "The FLAME Awards are an opportunity to earn one of the industry's most prestigious titles and we are delighted to receive this fantastic accolade.

"It's rewarding all the hard work our staff at the centre put in and the excellent working partnership we've established with the local council to make SLM Leisure Operator of the Year 2010."

Be prepared for Carnival Events like you're never seen before as this year's Rotary Weymouth Carnival is back with a bang!

WEYMOUTH Carnival 2010

Wednesday 18th August

We kick-start the day with a great favourite for children and adults alike, the Sand Castle Competition. This starts at 10:30am. Bring your bucket and spade and get all creative whilst getting some tips from local sand sculptor Mark. Prizes will be handed out to the winning sand-castles!

From 10:30am there is also a day of football on the beach! Organised by Tim Davis and his team at WeySports (the Weymouth & Portland Community Sports Development Group) and including players from Weymouth Ladies FC, children of all ages will be able to come along and receive coaching and take part in organised beach football matches. Any ability can play, it's all for fun, and what's more it's all totally free! Watch out during the day, as Weymouth Ladies FC will take on a team of the Weymouth Carnival Committee, so who will you be cheering for?

At 1:30pm we've got the modern day classic, back again for women and children... yes of course, it's the infamous Beach Space Hopper Racing! Relive the 80s classic bounce as you race across the beach. This has become quite a competitive event over the years, so make sure you come on down and watch, or of course enter if you think you've got what it takes to bounce your way to a medal!

Dad's Bleep Test Challenge starts at 3:30pm on the beach, and this isn't for the faint hearted! If you're in to football, you will know that this is the test that all players fear when they come back for pre-season training. So we've set our up own Bleep Test on the beach. Do you think you're fitter than Drogba or Rooney? Test yourself if you dare!

It's back!!! The age old classic Waitress Trolley Race returns to Weymouth Carnival, something that the owners of Banus were quick to come forward and sponsor. Will owner Georgina Grayson be able to win the crown, or will a greater waitress step forward and take the crown? It takes place outside Banus at 5pm, so make sure you come along and cheer your favourite restaurant or bar on!

New for 2010, and never before seen in Weymouth, we have the Coach Pull Challenge. So where do we start? Bluebird Coaches have kindly supplied a 12,500kg coach which will be outside Marks & Spencers from 5:30pm. Father and son, Chris Reay and CJ from The Channel Guest House, along with Dan Milverton of Future Physiques, will each take it in turns to pull this massive coach 40 meters single-handedly! This is no easy task, and to prove it, once they've recorded their times, pub teams of 6 can step forward to see whether they can pull this coach the same distance and record their times. If that's not all, just to keep it in the family, Sandra Reay, the mother of Chris, will then show how it's done by single-handedly pulling a 4x4! Phew, this is going to be exhausting just watching them all!

Also at 5:30pm is the children's Fun Run which starts at The Kings Statue. The route starts there and goes up to St Johns Church and back again. It's all for fun, and great for kids who fancy a challenge.

Keep your eyes peeled for 6 Paratroopers who are attending Weymouth Carnival Day. These brave soldiers, all just back from time in Afghanistan, will be down during the day and will be taking part in all the events. Yes that's right, from the Sand Castle Competition to the Waitress Trolley Race, these guys will be competing in all the events. So if you see them, please don't forget to give them a loud Carnival Cheer!!!

You will be available to watch a breathtaking daredevil Red Arrows display at 5pm, and the outstanding carnival procession at 6.30pm. The evening will rounded off by a spectacular fireworks display at 9.30pm.

Have fun!!!!

Therefore, we at Creature Comforts are offering 10% off to any new customer. Your pet can try one of our luxury, exfoliating massage treatments and bath using specially formulated products to suit your dog's coat.

We pride ourselves on our treatments, service and growing customer base, of which many have been loyal for many years and continue to recommend us on a daily basis.

Pop into our salon at Unit 2, Magdalen Lane, just before the Medical Centre, on your way to Dreadnaught Trading Estate to discuss your pet's needs.

We would like to remind everyone that we do specialise in CATS, dematting their coat, avoiding costly sedation bills and only shave the coat as a very last resort to avoid stress to your pet. Most of our existing clients with cats are amazed how settled their pet becomes, even purring during their experience.

Bridport Museum

BRIDPORT Museum is free throughout August thanks to a donation from Denhay Farms! We would like to thank Denhay for their generosity in making this possible for residents and visitors alike. There is something for everyone, including exhibitions like the Curiosity Cabinets, Fashion Through History, a real tiger's head, and the ever popular Rope and Net display. Our Gift Shop is full of local interest books, pocket money treats and souvenirs. Our team of volunteers will be happy to point you in the direction of the Local History Centre in Gundry Lane to enquire into your family tree, which is open on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays.

Denhay Farms was started in 1952 by Commander John Streatfeild and Alexander Hood and have increased their head of cattle to around 1000 Friesian Holstein cows in five herds, all producing the milk for their West Country Farmhouse Cheddar. Besides grass, they grow maize and wheat and create a balanced diet to get the best possible milk to make high quality cheese.

Though no longer rearing pigs, Denhay now buys in high welfare assured pork from around the country to produce their award-winning bacon. They still hand rub salt into the pork and mature the loins and bellies for over two weeks to produce a consistent bacon "tasting like bacon used to taste!"

Denhay relies on the dedication of all its team to produce the best raw materials and service. Amanda Streatfeild: "We are proud to be a part of the thriving Bridport community and to work with all parts of West Dorset life from Melplash Show and Bridport Food Festival, to the Museum and other local activities."

Self-catering booms on the back of the Olympics

Leading self-catering specialist, Blue Chip Vacations, is urging second home owners and property investors in Dorset to seriously consider the return potential that quality holiday homes and apartments represent in the run up to, and beyond, the London 2012 Olympic and Para Olympic Games.

Based on bookings made at its Ocean Views apartments in Portland, and provisional enquiries already received for weeks over the Olympics, Blue Chip Vacations anticipates that self-catering property owners in Dorset will be able to make up to three times as much in the Olympic year as in 2010.

Property Portfolio Manager for Blue Chip Vacations, Dorset, Matthew Boe commented: "There are a significant number of high quality long-let properties that could transfer to self-catering and seize a golden opportunity to benefit from a fantastic future income and tax breaks under the current rules."

This is not a flash in the pan opportunity. Blue Chip Vacations anticipate that future bookings will continue to grow on the back of the Olympic experience, attracting return bookings, further boosting income potential from a sector that is currently vastly under-supplied in Dorset. However, success will rely on quality; it will be the high-end properties that book first and retain the strongest return bookings in future years.

In October of last year Blue Chip Vacations took on a number of apartments at Ocean Views that overlook the Olympic course. This prime location has already helped these apartments achieve strong booking levels far in excess of first year predictions. In fact, the penthouse apartment at Ocean Views is currently the most viewed property of Blue Chip Vacations' 750 holiday properties across Devon, Dorset, Cornwall and Somerset, and already has in excess of 25 weeks booked in 2010.

View over the Olympic sailing course from 94 Ocean Views.

Matthew Boe believes that the figures speak for themselves: "If you take 2010 for example, a long-let two bedroom property could be expected to turn over up to £10,000 from a typical annual lease. By comparison, we are seeing income of between £18,000 and £22,000 on 2 bed apartments in Ocean Views. Taking this forward into the Olympic year, net income could be as much as £40,000, boosted by bookings over the Olympic weeks when rates could rise by three times as much as a typical high-season week."

While this is a clear opportunity, property owners need to get into the market as soon as they can so that they can appeal to early bookers, and customers who are looking to find high quality accommodation ahead of 2011. Many of these customers will return in 2012, so the trick is to capture them early, and to be on a site that is known to be close to the London 2012 Olympic sailing course. Those that are late into this market could lose out on a once in a lifetime opportunity.

Matthew Boe can be contacted for a free property appraisal and income projection at Blue Chip Vacations on 0845 6809421, www.bluechipvacations.com/owner

Gardening Jobs for August

On the Lawn - Raise the blades on the mower before cutting fine lawns. This will help reduce drought stress. Mow lightly and frequently so that short grass clippings can remain on the lawn during hot summers to act as a moisture-retentive mulch.

Excess thatch can be scarified out during autumn maintenance next month. Lawns on thin soils may benefit from a high phosphate feed. Summer meadows may need mowing now if they have past their season of interest.

The Shrub Border - Collect seed from favourite plants. Prune Wisteria and shrubs such as Pyracantha after flowering. Hebe and lavenders can be given a light prune after flowering. Continue to deadhead shrubs, such as roses, to extend flowering into early autumn. Rambling roses can be pruned now, once they have finished flowering.

Thoroughly soak drought-stressed plants and shrubs, especially newly planted ones. Use grey, recycled or stored rain water wherever possible. Semi-ripe cuttings can still be taken to propagate many common garden shrubs (e.g. box, Ceanothus, lavender). Rhododendrons, azaleas and Clematis can be propagated by layering.

Flower border/Patio area - Don't neglect hanging baskets - deadheading, watering and feeding will help them last through until autumn. Deadhead plants such as Dahlia, rose and Penstemon and bedding to prolong the display colour well into early autumn. Don't cut off the flower heads of ornamental grasses. These will provide winter interest.

Propagate irises by dividing the rhizomes if not done last month. Propagate perennials by dividing once they have finished flowering, but only in areas with some rain and duller weather, to avoid drying out problems.

Take cuttings of tender perennials such as Pelargonium and Osteospermum, as soon as possible. A greenhouse, cool conservatory or a light windowsill are ideal to bring them on until they are established.

Most perennial weeds are best dealt with when in active growth. Applying a weed killer containing Glyphosate during summer will ensure that the roots, as well as the top growth, are killed. However, Glyphosate is non-selective and plants you want to keep should avoided.

Sherborne Turf

Sherborne Turf is a local company supplying trade and retail customers with quality seeded lawn turf and associated products. Grown without netting, the turf is harvested from our own fields surrounding the historic town of Sherborne, and delivered using our own fleet of delivery vehicles. Turf is cut to order, so you can be sure it is fresh, and being a local company, low 'turf miles' mean our product is green in more ways than one!

In addition to turf, we also supply a full range of topsoils, composts and mulches, available for delivery either loose or in dumpy bags. Top-dressing, loam, fertiliser and seeds are also stocked, along with landscape accessories such as rakes, biodegradable stakes, geo-textile membranes, sprinklers, irrigators and spinners.

For more detailed information on all of our products, why not visit our website www.sherborneturf.co.uk. It is packed with product descriptions, turf laying guidelines & technical advice, and even has an interactive calculator to work out the quantity of turf or topsoil required for a given area.

At Sherborne Turf, we always want our customers to be delighted with their purchase, and our after-sales service includes advice and assistance as required. All of the team have technical knowledge, and are contactable on 01935 850388 or freephone 0800 178 0870. Office hours are 8am to 6pm Monday to Friday, and Saturday mornings during busy periods.

Helping make businesses that five per cent better

“MOST products were 95 per cent brilliant and five per cent flawed, so I thought it would be a real challenge to help develop that five per cent to make it 100 per cent brilliant, this is my dream job,” said the marketing brain behind the hugely successful Dorchester Business Improvement District, BID for short.

Having moved back to “his roots” from Berkshire to be closer to his parents, who live in Bridport, Phil Gordon has lived in Thorncombe for the last seven years, rekindling his love of cricket, which sees him today, sat in the village shop, for which he is a sporadic volunteer, with a broken thumb and tales of celebrity matches – including the 12 ball over’s by local resident Oliver Letwin MP.

Sipping from a cup of

THIS week we meet PHIL GORDON, the marketing brain behind the Dorchester Business Improvement District. View reporter PAUL CROMPTON talks to Phil about his success in marketing and his love of cricket coffee at a wobbly table, Phil recalls how four years ago he started Kaaboom Marketing Services offering marketing, Public Relations and sales support for smaller and medium sized businesses.

He said: “I became aware when I moved down here there was a lot of excellent businesses in Dorchester, some of which had fantastic products and services and needed a little help with getting the best out of them.”

Following this move, the future project manager of Dorchester BID, was only an advert away from becoming part of what he refers to as a “business positive” town.

“My wife saw an advert in the paper for a project manager for the Dorchester BID, but I knew nothing about what a BID is or was and quite frankly I was not particularly interested in project management,” he said. “However, I did a little bit of research and the more I read the more excited I got seeing what a huge opportunity for Dorchester, it was for us to take control of our own destiny a bit.”

A BID is a collection of businesses within a defined geographical area who vote to invest collectively in local improvements to enhance their trading environment, initiated, financed and led by the commercial sector, a BID helps provide additional or improved services as identified and requested by those businesses, to the baseline services provided by the local authority in that area.

All the businesses are invited to vote in a ballot on a business plan and basically that plan can contain anything suggested by the public of businesses to improve the town and make it a more viable place to do business.

“I really enjoy seeing a business achieve and people in that business actually benefit from all the hard work. It’s what keeps me going, turning passion into results,” he said.

“The important thing about the BID is that we were in the worst recession anyone can remember, certainly since the war, and in that time we lost 20 odd businesses including high street names like Woolworths and Adams, but we have gained over 35 new businesses in that same period, so Dorchester is actually business positive which is an amazing achievement I think.”

This influx of new businesses includes Wellworths, which has caught the country’s imagination, reportedly become a tourist destination in its own right, and the subject of a one hour BBC documentary, which Phil says, helped put Dorchester back on the map and the reason why people still flock to the town.

However, Phil is not a man who is satisfied with concentrating on one thing. After moving to the area, where his family tree goes back several generations, he decided it was the perfect time to build his own house.

So on moving to the area he and his family started their self build home, which he’d “never done anything like it before,” he said, adding “But it was a fantastic experience. I do feel from time-to-time when I walk through the door, I just think we really did do this ourselves. I don’t know how we did it, I was project manager and did a lot of things myself where possible, like a bit of plastering and electronics.

“It was a real experience, an emotional roller-coaster going through the planning problems, problems with access but the views kept us going.”

Of course, for a man with bags of energy, enthusiasm and drive, the transition from marketing and PR for Dorchester BID to fixing his own electronics is not a huge step.

“There were lots of reasons,” he said of completing a five year apprenticeship at EMI, “partly because I’m a gadgets man, I like technology and electronics and back in the 1970s and 80s it was probably the best place to be. But I knew that if I wanted to make a decent living it wasn’t the best career. I wanted to get out into the ‘big wide world’ and so worked in electronics engineering 15 years.”

However, he said: “Once the house was built it became apparent I was too young and poor to retire and needed to do something; I like to be doing things and keep active.”

And so destiny called in the form of the newspaper advert and here he is today, sat with his second cup of coffee resting in front of him, becoming animated as he talks of the up coming Twenty20 cricket cup final, which, thanks to his marketing instincts, took the opportunity to link his love of the game with the BID by buying advertising space for the games at the Rose Bowl and other county grounds.

“I was given the opportunity a few months ago of an extremely cheap last minute deal for some cricket banner advertising,” Phil said, adding “It gives Dorchester international exposure and brings the marketing impact of Dorchester to a wider, more global audience and allows us the opportunity to have Sky TV broadcast games with our message: dorchester.dorset.com Discover our Secrets. There’s a good demographic of people going to cricket, look at the people going, it’s a good audience to target to get to spend money in the town.”

Phil said: “I love cricket. I’m competitive but I know my skill limits; I’d rather have a good game where you are not quite sure who will win it, but end up winning yourself. I enjoy friendly matches a lot, playing league games I find some sides are too intense and a bit un-cricket like, for me it’s not what the game is about.”

Having started around nine years ago Phil’s passion for cricket has seen him coach a number of Colts teams and managed the woman’s 11 at Axminster, Devon. And his infectious love of the game even rubbed off on his “long suffering” wife.

“She was fed up with me listening to Test Matches so since a few years ago, to my amazement, she said she would have a go and she has seen how much fun the social side of the game can be and now she’s a real cricket lover. The turning point was when I came home and found her watching the Test Match, and the look on her face when I walked in was brilliant.

“After that I knew the transformation was complete, and I thought ‘my work here was done’.”

Teams take up the Wilderness Challenge for sailors' charity

TEAMS from Portland are currently running intensive training sessions as they prepare for a gruelling four discipline, 64-kilometre charity race.

Two teams from Portland Harbour Authority are set to tackle the gruelling one day "Wilderness Challenge" for global charity the Sailors' Society this September.

The teams will leave the Port on a 50-kilometre bike ride through the Rothiemurchus forest, a three-kilometre canoe across Loch Morlich and a 10-kilometre run, including a staggering 800-metre mountain peak ascent at the Cairngorms National Park.

Former Royal Navy and Volunteer Ship Visitor at Portland Port Mike Chittenden said: "I understand the challenges of life at sea and the isolation that can face seafarers so far from their homes and families.

by Paul Crompton

"My aim is to regularly visit the port and bring comfort and assistance where I can. Thanks to Portland Harbour Authority I have a unique opportunity to be on hand to help seafarers who visit from across the world."

International charity The Sailors' Society provides a personal lifeline for 1.2 million seafarers by offering practical, emotional and spiritual support, financial assistance and family liaison through our Port Chaplains and Seafarers' Centres.

The Sailors' Society is backing the IMO Year of the Seafarer campaign with a new fundraising drive asking for just £1 for every seafarer the charity aims to reach in 2010.

Ian McQuade, Portland

Harbour Authority's Commercial Manager said: "We see our decision to make the Sailors' Society our charity of the year as an opportunity to support the excellent work of an organisation working to help those within our industry.

Portland Harbour Authority's decision to support the Sailors' Society coincides with the arrival of a new "Volunteer Ship Visitor" for the Sailors' Society.

Excellent art on show at group exhibition

■ EXCELLENT work was on offer when Weymouth Art Group held its 66th annual exhibition.

The event at Weymouth Library included 110 entries in oil, pastel and watercolour while there were also photographic and mixed sections.

Group chairman Rod Stone said: "It was an excellent standard this year, very good."

"What impressed me was that I watch artists as they do their work and it is how they change and how their work changes as they get more confident that fascinates me."

Visitors were able not just to tour the exhibition but also to vote for their favourite painting.

Meet Dorothy the Dinosaur at Wellworths

ASK a pre-schooler who their favourite Wiggles character is and for many it's ballet-loving, rose-eating Dorothy the Dinosaur!

Dorothy the Dinosaur has been a faithful companion to Australia's children's entertainers since the group's earliest days and on Friday August 13th she will be paying a very special visit to Well-worths in Dorchester to celebrate the launch of an exclusive line of Wiggles merchandise at the store.

Wellworths hit the headlines in 2009 when former Woolworths store manager Claire Robertson opened the independent outlet when the Woolworths chain closed.

In just three months the store had welcomed over 100,000 customers through its doors and the business continues to go from strength to strength.

Now a global entertainment phenomenon, The Wiggles started from equally humble beginnings when Early Childhood Education students Anthony Field, Greg Page and Murray Cook decided to write a collection of children's songs as part of a university project. The group, who celebrate their 20th anniversary in 2011, now play to over 1,000,000 people per year and have sold out more nights at New York's Madison Square Garden than Coldplay!

Dorothy will be at Wellworth's on Friday 13th August between 12 noon and 3pm, so don't forget to bring your camera.

There's also a free gift with every Wiggles item purchased while stocks last.

Beautiful fashion boutique for "real" women

Figure Eight located in Antelope Walk Dorchester specialises in fashion for "real" women from sizes 16 to 30.

The shop is the brain-child of proprietor Elaine Keetch, a designer who ran successful businesses in Bath, Wells and Yeovil before relocating to Dorchester.

Elaine explains, "several of my friends were bemoaning the fact that as plus size girls, they were disappointed with the range of day and occasion wear available. I felt that there was a real problem for ladies who were not in the size 8 to 12 range who still needed clothing to suit their lifestyle and I decided to specialise in finding the very best clothes in sizes up to 30". Since opening in Dorchester the collections have grown, stocking labels from across Europe, Chalou, Sempre Prui, Be The Queen, Rhiona Stone to name a few. Due to the demand for the collections, Elaine is looking at stocking some ranges from a size 12.

Figure Eight will soon be launching their new website where you will be able to browse new Autumn/Winter collections and be made aware of seasonal promotions and events. Personal shopping experiences will also soon be available for those who find it difficult to come during shop opening or for a personal shopping experience to share with friends and have fun for an evening.

As always, we also stock a fantastic range of handbags, wraps, jewellery and other accessories whatever your size. If you have not yet visited us, please call in for a warm welcome.

The Keep Military Museum

THE MILITARY Museum of Devon and Dorset is considered by many as being a little like a "Tardis" in that from the outside there is this iconic structure not dissimilar to a castle albeit only 140 years old, but on the inside it blossoms to include four floors of displays all of which feature a truly fabulous collection of militaria spanning 300 years of service. The museums displays are ever changing, interpretation is a key factor when designing or re-configuring a display, this work makes it easier for visitors to understand something of what life was like during the many different era's of our soldiers involvement with military conflict and life in peacetime. Visitors this year will see a complete change to the second floor of the museum. This floor presents uniforms, weapons, medals and silver as well as many other very interesting artefacts. The entire floor is now lit by LED lighting in various forms. The lighting is more subtle in many areas but vibrant in feature displays. This lighting is modern by design, it is slightly more costly but this is far outweighed by the longevity of the lights, the savings in electricity consumption, and they greatly minimise any heat or UV damage to textiles or paintings. Visitors can get a taste of the museum by going to www.dorchesterdorset.com clicking on the virtual Dorchester Tab, scroll to the bottom of the page and then by using the left and right arrows locate the museum through the pictorial icons, once found, hit on the icon and come on into the museum. ## A new word in style for county town

A shop that mixes the work of Dorset designers with internationally famous names is the latest addition to Dorchester's buoyant retail scene.

Eureka is the second retail venture by entrepreneur Tim Altham, whose business until now has been in supplying quality retailers with stylish stationery and fashion accessories. The first Eureka store opened in September 2009 in Swanage.

Products at the Dorchester store include stationery and accessories from Designers Guild, beauty products from Drenched and Glamour-flage in Australia, TOKYObay watches from San Francisco, stationery and ceramics from Cath Kidston and Nora jewellery from Norway (exclusive to Eureka).

Designers from Dorset are responsible for the shop's lively spread of greeting cards and wrappings, as well as the range of contemporary eco bags which, says Tim, are leading the field in colour and design.

He said: "We have produced the most ethical range of eco bags on the market. The content is entirely recycled, from old plastic bottles, and no one else is doing that with folding eco bags."

Eureka, Tim says, sets out to offer "an infusion of colour and design, across a whole range of products – as many as possible from Dorset designers.

"We want to support local artists and designers, and we are always happy to talk to them about their ideas."

Bringing you the very best in children's and baby wear

PETITE MOUETTE began life as a small exclusive boutique selling beautiful clothes to enthusiastic adults who want to see children dressed as children. All their clothes are carefully selected to bring you the very best in children's apparel. They believe that we live in a throw away society where it is all too easy to buy cheap clothes that don't last and that their range of quality, traditional and fun children's wear is the perfect antidote to this.

The Autumn/Winter collections are beginning to arrive in store, they have received their first drop from Canadian brand Deux par Deux as well as the first of the new Noa Noa miniature. Noa Noa baby is also being launched this August and will be in store by the 20th.

Look out for more great brands, stunning winter coats for boys and girls and brand new baby clothes, gifts and accessories. This is also a great time to pop in and pick up some great summer bargains from the Catimini and Kenzo sale rails.

Petite Mouette invite you to join them on their journey to find stunning quality clothes and gifts for our children to treasure...

I should "pick" a fishy for my little dishy...

Billy the fish has been established in Dorchester for some time now and the people of the area have recognised his business as two sections, a Fish Monger on one side and quirky Sea Food restaurant on the other.

Recently Billy the Proprietor decided to combine the two and incorporate a significant fresh fish counter into the restaurant layout, giving his customers the chance to visually select their choice of fish and sit by and watch as it is prepared and cooked to their liking.

For example, why not pick and mix a fresh fish platter made up of prawns, scallops, calamari and lobster to be freshly prepared and served for a group of you to share.

You do not have to eat your pickings in the restaurant, the fresh fish counter operates as any other fish monger does and gives it's customers the opportunity to buy 'fruites de mer' over the counter and do the cooking bit at home or on the bbq.

The restaurant that Billy created now seats 36 and more if the venue is booked for private buffet parties. The business also has been known to cater for wedding parties, birthdays (with karaoke) and also special cook nights where you can (in small groups at a time) actually go into the kitchen and take part in the process of filleting and cooking the fish.

There are lunch and evening menus containing all fresh locally caught fish, meat and vegetarian options, vegetables which come, in particular, from Billy's father's allotment which adds to the friendly local feel of the business.

Lunch is served daily from 11-4pm and evening dinner from Thursday to Saturday from 7pm-late but Billy would like to make it clear that if you wish to book a table for an evening that is not advertised as open, the team will gladly open the restaurant to meet your needs. # Clarondene, a caring, single-story residential home in the heart of beautiful Lyme Regis

OUR AUGUST NEWS

THE WINDOW BOXES

Doris has always loved flowers, so Clarondene has provided her with a wonderful collection of colour outside her window now that her active gardening days are over. The perfume from the window boxes fills her room and the flowers are the first thing she sees when her curtains are drawn for her in the morning. Now she has some lovely pictures to send to her friend Hazel, who sends snaps of her garden every summer.

OUR COLOURFUL COTTAGE GARDEN

The winter did its worst last year and we lost many bulbs and some quite established shrubs, but we have thoroughly enjoyed the beautiful summer and all the colours of our little sun trap garden

100 YEARS AND RELAXING

Bill enjoys a daily pipe, weather permitting, as he approaches his 101st birthday next month. He spent a lifetime as a radio engineer with top-secret exploits during World War 2, although his memories of WW1 are still very vivid, looking out from behind net curtains to see whether the telegram boy would stop and knock. Now although he can no longer see it, he enjoys the tranquillity of our little flower filled garden and even his Doctor thinks "A pipe a day at this stage won't do too much harm". Happy puffing, Bill.

MARIAN LENDS A HAND

Marian has spent a lifetime helping other people and still likes to sort things out where she can, even if it's only to help Doris when her shoe has fallen off!

PRETTY RELAXING

Even an active 15 year old has to take a nap sometime, and where better than to curl up with Joan's furry friends and doze in an armchair on a sunny day in front of the garden window? Pretty and Beauty are elderly rescued cats who need a slower pace of life and are enjoying spending the last part of their lives here at Clarondene, alongside other retirees who need a little cossetting and taking care of.

ANYONE ELSE FOR A RACE?

In addition to the 8-seater disability bus, we can be seen walking in View Road on most fine days, as Clarondene is located on one of the only flat streets in Lyme Regis! We study the progress of the neighbour's gardens and admire the sea-views between the trees.

5 * FOOD SAFETY RE-AWARDED

Jacqui, our cook, is to be thoroughly commended for the standard of cleanliness and hygiene (not to mention, her food!) in the kitchen. Last week's West Dorset Environmental Health Inspection went well, Jacqui and Alison's CIEH Level 3 Awards impressed, as did our record keeping. The result = WE KEEP OUR 5 STARS!

OUR YOUNG VISITOR

Pat's children Kay and Colin brought a 9-week Collie to visit, much to everyone's delight. Doris is particularly fond of dogs so she was thrilled to have this affectionate bundle on her lap for a few minutes.

You're always welcome

Do contact me if you require any further information or have any questions. The kettle is always on, so please pop in for a cup of tea and a chat, anytime.

View 2 Music

Nutty Boys at the abbey

LIVE music and Glastonbury has been synonymous with one another ever since the first Pilton Pop Festival - as it was then known - back in 1970, but there is another event that's taken place in the town every year since 1996.

The Glastonbury Extravaganza, now in its 15th year, takes place in the glorious surroundings of Glastonbury Abbey. This two-day family orientated event - with picnic hampers almost obligatory - is staged every August, with a pop/rock act headlining on the Saturday night and a classical concert on the Sunday.

The Extravaganza is organised by the same team as the Glastonbury Festival itself, with Michael Eavis very much at the forefront of this far more local event.

This year's Saturday headliners were Madness - who played the Pyramid Stage at last year's main festival - and I can't think of a better band to tick all the boxes. Family friendly - check. Charismatic frontman - check. And a sack full of hit tunes - check.

After a well received support slot from Seventies stalwarts Steve Harley & The Cockney Rebel - including their number one smash 'Make Me Smile (Come Up And See Me)' and a sing-a-long version of George Harrison's 'Here Comes The Sun' - the audience readied itself for the main attraction.

Hampers were packed away and the crowd got to its feet, with the area in front of the stage getting busier and busier as the sun went down and the ruins were floodlit in Technicolor.

The souvenir stand was doing a roaring trade in comedy fezzes and inflatable saxophones, equally popular with children and grown-ups alike. And by the time Suggs & co hit the stage, it seemed the whole crowd were wearing a Madness 't'-shirt or sporting some sort of band related accessory.

Suggs, dressed in a very natty suit, had made a cameo appearance at the end of Steve Harley's set, but was now ready for the spotlight to be very firmly on his band.

"Hey you, don't watch that, watch this..." boomed Chas Smash, and so it began, with Madness launching the set with their first Top Ten hit, 'One Step Beyond'. And the hits kept on coming, with 'Embarrassment' and a fantastic arrangement of 'My Girl'.

The rest of the 90 minute plus set was a balanced mix of greatest hits, tracks from their fantastic latest album The Liberty of Norton Folgate, and a selection from their 2005 covers LP, The Dangermen Sessions.

Most of the individual members of the band got a chance to shine, with guitarist Chris Foreman trying his hand at stand-up comedy, sax player Lee Thompson scaling the heights of the stage rigging and even keyboard player Mike Barson getting the chance to come out of the shadows. Only drummer Dan Woodgate seemed happy holding things together out of the spotlight.

The crowd lapped up every tune, dancing and singing along with The Nutty Boys as if it was 1979. A great finale culminated in an encore of their theme tune - Prince Buster's 'Madness' - and 'Night Boat To Cairo' from the 1980 Work Rest and Play EP.

The night was rounded off by an impressive fireworks display as a very happy crowd made their way home from the ancient ruins.

NUTTY TIME HAD BY ALL | Madness frontman Suggs

Musical Theatre Company to perform 42nd Street

SHOWSTOPPING performers from the Bridport Musical Theatre Company will return to the stage later this month for "42nd Street".

The company, who have produced three sell-out shows with "The Boyfriend", "Anything Goes" and "Showstoppers" are now putting the final touches to their latest show.

The show is a celebration of Broadway and the people involved in the shows, a tale of hard work, being in the right place at the right time, talent and love.

Star of the show is the aspiring young chorus girl, Peggy Sawyer who is trying to get her break in the latest Julian Marsh production.

Musical hits include "You're Getting to be a Habit With Me", "Dames", "I Know Now", "We're in the Money", "Lullaby of Broadway", "Shuffle off to Buffalo" and of course "Forty-Second Street".

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

THOSE of us who live here in the Southwest of England are either fortunate or wise, or perhaps both. As a schoolboy in East Yorkshire during the war I learned to love the poetry of John Masefield, who was our Poet Laureate at the time. This evocative poem of his is one of my favourites.

The West Wind

*It's a warm wind, the west wind, full of birds' cries;
I never hear the west wind but tears are in my eyes.
For it comes from the west lands, the old brown hills.
And April's in the west wind, and daffodils.*

*It's a fine land, the west land, for hearts as tired as mine,
Apple orchards blossom there, and the air's like wine.
There is cool green grass there, where men may lie at rest,
And the thrushes are in song there, fluting from the nest.*

*"Will ye not come home brother? ye have been long away,
It's April, and blossom time, and white is the may;
And bright is the sun brother, and warm is the rain,--
Will ye not come home, brother, home to us again?"*

*"The young corn is green, brother, where the rabbits run.
It's blue sky, and white clouds, and warm rain and sun.
It's song to a man's soul, brother, fire to a man's brain,
To hear the wild bees and see the merry spring again.*

*"Larks are singing in the west, brother, above the green wheat,
So will ye not come home, brother, and rest your tired feet?
I've a balm for bruised hearts, brother, sleep for aching eyes,"
Says the warm wind, the west wind, full of birds' cries.*

*It's the white road westwards is the road I must tread
To the green grass, the cool grass, and rest for heart and head,
To the violets, and the warm hearts, and the thrushes' song,
In the fine land, the west land, the land where I belong.*

IT is not just the Southwest of England that is a rural holiday destination for those seeking beauty and tranquility, the Southwest of Ireland also has its attractions as described here by the Irish poet John Millington Synge.

Prelude

*Still south I went and west and south again,
Through Wicklow from the morning till the night,
And far from cities, and the sights of men,
Lived with the sunshine and the moon's delight.*

*I knew the stars, the flowers, and the birds,
The gray and wintry sides of many glens,
And did but half remember human words,
In converse with the mountains, moors, and fens.*

IT'S understandable that urbanites want to escape occasionally from the noise and the smoke of the city. They also have a need to exchange for a while the greyness of the streets for the greenness of the country lanes. This little verse is by Dorset's own bard, William Barnes.

Green

*Our summer way to church did wind about
The cliff, where ivy on the ledge wer green.
Our summer way to town did skirt the wood,
Where sheenèn leaves in tree an' hedge wer green.*

*Our summer way to melkèn in the meàd,
Wer on by brook, where fluttrèn zedge wer green.*

*Our hwomeward ways did all run into one,
Where moss upon the roofstwonès' edge wer green.*

You can huff and puff... Queen comes to the Electric Palace

THE well-loved tale of the 3 Little Pigs comes to Bridport Arts Centre at the talented hands of Stuff and Nonsense Theatre Company from Monday, August 16th until Saturday 21st at 11am (except Thursday).

Building your own home is not as easy as it looks. For instance, what is the best material to use, will it be wind proof, will it be Wolf proof?! There's only one way to find out...

3 Little Pigs is a show that adults will enjoy just as much as the children (if not more!) with its comical puppetry, cheesy music and rather loud wallpaper.

3 Little Pigs is chock full of puppets, music, comedy and thrills. It's a real treat for everyone aged 2 - 7 and beyond!

Co-devised by Gwen Scott, Adam Fuller, Marc Parrett and Niki McCretton

Why not have a go at puppetry yourself? Bridport Puppet Theatre will be holding workshops for 7 - 12 year olds on Tuesday 17th August through to Thursday 19th August. The workshops cost £15 per day and run from midday until 4pm - why not come along after watching the show? Everyone that takes part with the workshop on Thursday 19th can take part in a performance that friends and family will be able to enjoy at 4pm.

The box office is 10am - 4pm, Tuesday to Saturday to book tickets or phone on 01308 424204. Tickets for 3 Little Pigs are £6 children, £10 adults, £7 supporters and £28 family.

GA GA are delighted to bring their 'Best Of Queen' Tour to the Electric Palace, Bridport on Friday, August 20th and invite you to join them in an evening devoted to the music of the legendary British rock group Queen.

After filming for the BBC as part of the 'The Story of Bohemian Rhapsody' BBC documentary, GA GA have embarked on their present tour with plaudits from both fans and critics alike, including the Official Queen Fan Club and Queen's guitarist, Brian May.

The band have performed at a diverse collection of shows with artists including Squeeze, The Spice Girls, Space and Frank Skinner. They have played to crowds of over 20,000 people at events such as the Party in the Park and the Mardi Gras, and have also played at many Queen conventions from Southport to Holland to Dubai.

GA GA do not dress up or make themselves up to look like Queen, but instead concentrate on the the power and precision that made Queen's music great. Aided by a stunning light show the band brings hit after hit to the stage with a musical dexterity that gives a fitting tribute to the genius of Queen. Classic songs such as A Kind Of Magic, Radio GA GA and Bohemian Rhapsody encourage the audience to become part of the show, just as they were when Queen performed live.

Tickets to see GA GA at the Electric Palace, Bridport are priced at £12.50 and are available from Bridport Tourist Information Centre on 01308 424901.

New Skins cast revealed

SKINS | E4 HAS announced the latest batch of impossibly cool teens to star in the fifth series of Skins.

The show, which changes its cast every two years, attracted more than 7,000 entrants to open auditions, so many of the new cast members are fresh-faced newcomers.

There is however one familiar face in Dakota Blue Richards, a 16-year old star who's previously appeared as Lyra in the 2007 movie, The Golden Compass.

Skins executive producer John Griffin said: "More people than ever turned up this year for the open auditions in London and Bristol and the standard of young talent was as high as ever. It was a huge process but incredibly rewarding and we hope that the auditionees had as much fun as we did."

"We are really excited about the talent that has come through and we now have a brilliant cast of actors helping to create the exciting new characters for Skins series five."

POPSTAR TO OPERASTAR | Mylene Klass and Alan Titchmarsh are fighting to save their jobs on ITV1's Popstar To Operastar. The programme has been recommissioned, but bosses have slashed the budget due to poor ratings, which means the channel can only afford to retain one of the presenters this time around.

GORDON RAMSAY | Fiery TV chef Gordon Ramsay looks set for a £40million pay-day after selling his TV production company. One Potato Two Potato, the company behind hit programmes such as The F Word, is being snapped up by All3Media in a deal which could net the celebrity chef up to £20million.

SHERLOCK | Hit BBC drama Sherlock, which came to an end on Sunday, will unsurprisingly be recommissioned for a second series. According to insiders: "It's not a matter of if, but when everyone can get together." The news comes as writer Steven Moffat and star Benedict Cumberbatch promote the revamped detective series in LA.

Donkey walks and picnics in Beaminster

WALK a short way West of Beaminster through Puckett's wood and you will come to Stokewater Meadow, field home of Stokewater Meadow Donkey and Art centre. The French have been wild about donkey walking for years. There is something profoundly satisfying about walking with these attentive and affectionate animals.

Taking the weight off your shoulders by carrying your picnics and baggage in the traditional way.

Smallholder Chris Brancher helped by his partner art educator Susan have set up the centre in a beautiful valley setting.

They offer a days donkey experience starting with basic donkey handling tips, grooming and tacking up followed by a leisurely walk four to five miles through the bridge ways around the Brit Valley and TV's original River Cottage location. Pub lunch or picnic en route.

In addition, parents and children may enjoy our donkey art picnics in the vicinity of the stream bordered valley centre, especially during school holidays.

Individual needs catered for. Please contact Susan and Chris Brancher on 01308 862045 for more details.

A week for kids at the cinema

WALT Disney's latest release The Sorcerer's Apprentice (PG) is loosely based on a segment of the same name from the Disney classic Fantasia, as well as Arthurian legend.

The adventure film stars Nicholas Cage as sorcerer Balthazar Blake in modern day Manhattan. Balthazar fights against his arch-nemesis Maxim Horvath while searching for someone to inherit powers from the greatest wizard of all time, Merlin.

He chooses physics student Dave Stutler, played by Jay Baruchel, who reluctantly is given a crash course in the art and science of magic and sorcery in order to stop Horvath, who betrayed Merlin in the year 740, from destroying the world.

SORCERER'S APPRENTICE

ADVENTURE fantasy film The Last Airbender (PG) is based on the first series of animated Nickelodeon television series Avatar: The Last Airbender. The film stars Noah Ring as Aang – a reluctant hero who prefers new adventures to his job as the Avatar.

Aang and his friends Katara and Sokka travel to the North Pole to find a Waterbending master to teach them his craft. But at the same time, Fire Lord Ozai begins a war against the Earth Kingdom, Water Tribes and the Air Nomads.

The film is available to watch in 2D and 3D.
Released Friday, August 13th

CONTINUING the children's popular Peter Pan spin-off films is Tinkerbell and the Great Fairy Rescue (U).

The computer animated film is based before Tinkerbell was introduced to Wendy and the Lost Boys, when she meets Lizzy – a young girl with a strong belief in fairies.

Tink develops a special bond with the lonely little girl as their two world's unite, but her fellow fairies take a daring flight to London to rescue their friend. Determined to mend the girl's distant friendship with her father, Tink turns away her rescuers in order to help her new human friend, risking her own safety and the future of fairy kind.

Award Winning Blues Band The Producers play live in Bridport

DAVE Saunders and Harry Skinner formed The Producers in 1990 and quickly became one of the most popular blues outfits in the country, winning the 'Blues Band of the Year' award 4 times and releasing 7 CD albums, one of which 'Ain't no Love in the World' was nominated for the 'Best Blues Album' award.

Popularity amongst blues fans for The Producers is very strong and national tours sell out as standard. The Producers were among the first to feature an acoustic set in their show which led to the whole acoustic set becoming almost 'de rigueur' with every band, blues or otherwise, following The Producers lead.

The Producers are regularly asked to headline Europe's best blues festivals to include the Cognac Blues Festival in France, Colne, Burnley, Stanley Blues, Templebar Dublin, Cork, Farnham, North Wales Blues Festival plus many more. At the Cognac Blues Festival, they were joined onstage by headliner Ray Charles' brass section and, memorably, his 'Raelets' shimmying and dancing in front of them!

Praised by Johnnie Walker and Bob Harris, The Producers played in session on Radio 2 for the Paul Jones Blues Show. They were later asked to tour as support for Fleetwood Mac's Peter Green for his first national tour for 25 years.

Catch The Producers live at Bridport's Electric Palace on Thursday, August 12th. Tickets are on sale now from Bridport Tourist Information Centre for £10 in advance and £12 on the door.

60 - the perfect number for a new Peugeot

PEUGEOT has a range of great sales offers available for customers looking for a new "60" plate in September.

This September, Peugeot will help car buyers with a range of sales offers aimed at simplifying the purchasing of a new car, reducing costs and providing the freedom to enjoy your new car to the full.

Peugeot's Just Add Fuel™ programme provides a cost effective and simple way to get behind the wheel of a new first car. It provides a single monthly payment that covers all the major motoring costs, comprehensive motor insurance, road fund licence, vehicle servicing, roadside assistance and warranty all in a three year finance package with one single monthly payment.

Peugeot's Just Add Fuel™ (JAF) programme also provides the perfect answer for young drivers aged 21 years of age who want to own a new car without breaking the bank. Young drivers are currently faced with ever-increasing insurance premiums; a quick trawl through the many insurance internet web sites reveal that a 21 year old first time driver in a new Peugeot 107 will pay on average £235* a month in London, £259** in Birmingham and £433*** in Manchester just for insurance alone.

Under the Just Add Fuel™ programme a 21 year-old driver can get behind the wheel of a new Peugeot 107 Millesim for just £197, less than the cost they would pay for insurance alone.

Getting behind the wheel of a new Peugeot 107, 207 hatchback, 207 SW or the perfect car for the summer, the 207 CC is also easy in September with Peugeot's PCP programme Passport. A range of contracts is available with an APR of 5.9% and periods of 25, 31 and 37 months and deposits from zero to 40%.

Customers looking for a larger family car can get behind the wheel of a 308 hatchback via Peugeot's Passport programme with a 4.9% APR over 25, 31 and 37 months and deposits from zero to 40%.

Peugeot's stylish 308 CC, the practical 308 SW, What Car? Car of the year 2010 the innovative 3008 Crossover and Peugeot's award winning 5008 MPV are perfect for any season, and are now available via standard finance with a 2.9% APR and a deposit of 25% over four years.

Peugeot's luxurious 407 Coupé and the versatile 407 saloon and SW are available with the practical and spacious Peugeot 807 with four years 0% standard finance and a 25% deposit.

Great offers, an innovative way to buy a new car,

Just Add Fuel™, the only single payment programme available and low interest rates, means buying a new "60" plate Peugeot is the carefree option this summer.

Finally, all cars registered in September will also get a free Nokia Smartphone with in-built satellite navigation, and free of charge future updates, reducing journey times and optimising fuel usage, further helping to reduce motoring costs.

Fuel of laughter, the Citroën DS3 ecomedy tour arrives in Edinburgh

AFTER FIVE cities, five nights and 530 miles on the road, the Citroën DS3 Ecomedy Tour arrived on Friday (06/08) at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival – with just over a third of a tank of fuel to spare.

'Ecomedians' Dan Adams and Christian Ancliff successfully piloted their DS3 99g all the way through London, Oxford, Stratford-upon-Avon, Manchester and Glasgow before reaching Edinburgh to begin their debut Fringe show run.

During the tour, Dan and Christian took the stage at famous venues such as Manchester's Comedy Store and The Stand Club in Glasgow, raising support for Helen & Douglas House Hospice all whilst trying to consume as little fuel as possible.

Dan Adams commented: 'What an adventure. We've played some fantastic venues, met some great people, supported a brilliant charity and the DS3 still had about 200 miles left in the tank! Now we're here in Edinburgh and starting our Fringe show, we couldn't be happier.'

Marc Raven, Citroën Communications Director added: 'Some excellent stand-up performances from the comedians and an outstanding economic performance from DS3. This was a great project to be involved in and we wish Dan and Christian all the success for their first Fringe appearance.'

Lexus CT 200h, engineered for sporty handling as well as full hybrid fuel efficiency

Hybrid power, low emissions and high fuel efficiency: it's not the kind of equation that suggests the kind of sharp and sporty handling that Lexus has built into its new, full hybrid CT 200h.

Far from being simply a standard hybrid in smart clothes, the new CT 200h – the first Lexus for the luxury small car market – has been the subject of innovative, detailed chassis engineering to ensure that it will put a smile on the face of the driver.

From the outset, Lexus has aimed to make the CT 200h a true driver's car. Delivering on this promise was not a matter of finding some clever add-on parts, but required fundamental reappraisal of the chassis and bodyshell design. True to its reputation for pioneering advanced technology, Lexus has equipped CT 200h with lateral performance dampers, components that, until now, have largely been the preserve of a very few high-performance models. Lexus has used the damping technology as an effective way of increasing torsional rigidity, suppressing vibrations and contributing to ride comfort without the penalty of extra weight.

Deployed front and rear, the lateral dampers are key elements in a detailed package of design and engineering measures that also includes strategic strengthening and carefully gauged welding quality throughout the vehicle.

The result is a car powered by proven full hybrid technology that lets the driver enjoy an added performance dimension, supported by a choice of Dynamic and Relaxing driving "moods" and selectable

SPORT, NORMAL AND ECO drive modes.

CT 200h's handling has been developed specifically to appeal European customers. Final dynamic testing was carried out on European roads to ensure the all aspects of the car's suspension, steering, regenerative braking system and full hybrid powertrain meet the standards expected in the highly competitive market for compact luxury cars – currently dominated by the BMW 1 Series and Audi A3.

Lateral performance dampers

The Lexus CT 200h is the first volume production model to use front and rear lateral performance dampers to increase torsional rigidity and reduce vibration.

The dampers' design is like that of a monotube shock absorber, as shown in the diagram below. Used in place of conventional rigid bracing, they are deployed between the front suspension towers, and at the rear across the lower back panel. Each damper assembly is tailored to suit the rigidity, noise and vibration performance in its immediate surroundings.

As well as absorbing and minimising unwanted vibrations, particularly through the vehicle floor, they improve steering feel and ride comfort. Body deformation is also significantly reduced: in testing, Lexus engineers recorded a 15 per cent reduction in the displacement of the left and right suspension towers.

Their contribution to on-board comfort even extends to cutting the amount of white noise transmitted through the car's audio system, the kind of attention to detail that is a hallmark of Lexus engineering.

Structural rigidity

Lexus's ambition is for the new CT 200h to set a benchmark for handling in its segment. To help meet this goal it has targeted measures to give the car excellent structural rigidity, in particular by optimising weld points and bracing around the vehicle.

Legendary tuner bbr releases performance conversion portfolio for Ford Focus RD MK2

BBR is proud to announce a new range of performance conversions for the mighty 300 bhp Ford Focus RS MK2. BBR's upgrades reflect its 20 years experience with Ford tuning and are available in four very distinct power levels, with an accompanying suspension upgrade package to optimise the car's dynamic abilities.

After 18 months of meticulous testing and development, BBR is confident no other Ford tuning company worldwide has a more complete track, road and dyno tested range of conversions for the Focus RS MK2.

Phase One BBR StarChip Software upgrade

The entry level upgrade transforms the performance and driveability of the Focus RS via an ECU remap. Use of BBR's StarChip software affords an extremely linear throttle pedal / turbo boost map, resulting in a considerably smoother driving experience than offered by the factory ECU settings. With a huge improvement in throttle response, the mid range torque and peak horsepower are substantially enhanced, with no visibly obvious mechanical changes.

Phase One Conversion includes:

Custom Mapped BBR Star Chip - With careful calibration of the standard Focus RS MK2 ECU, fuel, ignition, torque, airflow and boost requirements are carefully re-mapped for all conditions, making this conversion a worthy level one addition to our range. BBR is confident that this ECU remap represents the finest blend of drivable performance for track and road.

Silicone induction hose - During testing under full load BBR has found the original air intake hose distorting, causing an airflow restriction. Replacement of this hose is essential to release the full performance of the Phase One conversion.

BBR Focus RS Phase One Power 342 HP @ 6150RPM
BBR Focus RS Phase One Torque 369 ft/lbs @ 3350RPM

Priced at £595.00, customers should allow 2 hours for installation. A DIY kit is also available.

Phase Two BBR RS355

BBR's Phase Two upgrade replaces the RS MK2's standard inefficient intercooler with BBR's own high flow unit. All inlet air box hoses to and from the air box and to the RS's turbocharger unit are replaced with high flow, silicon versions, removing inlet air flow restrictions in the process.

In conjunction with the replacement inlet hose kit, BBR installs a custom mapped BBR Star Chip to extract the maximum safe power from the original RS MK2's fuel system, without any gains in inlet temperature, or the very important 'air fuel ratio' going weak. The stock paper element air filter is also replaced with a high flow performance unit.

In addition to the Phase One upgrade, the Phase Two Conversion includes:

BBR spec High flow intercooler - Finished in gloss black, the BBR intercooler sits discretely behind the Focus RS MK2's aggressive front grill, utilizing the full width of the aperture. This highly efficient inlet core allows BBR to manage inlet air temperatures easily, helping to optimise performance at higher boost levels.

High Flow inlet hose set - A complete set of high flow replacement hoses are included, removing manufacturer's inherent flow restrictions and allowing greater flow from the turbocharger.

High flow filter - BBR specifies a drop in performance air filter which improves throttle response and comes with a million mile warranty.

BBR Focus RS Phase Two Power 355 HP @ 6580RPM
BBR Focus RS Phase Two Torque 378 ft/lbs @ 3000-4600RPM

Priced at £1245.00, with a fitting charge of £195.00, customers should allow four to five hours for installation. A DIY kit is also available.

Phase Three BBR RS380

The BBR Phase Three conversion extracts the maximum safe power from the original Focus RS MK2's turbo unit. In addition to components used in the BBR phase two upgrade, the complete exhaust system is replaced with a BBR 3" stainless steel exhaust that includes a sports catalyst (retaining emissions legality.)

As part of the Phase Three conversion BBR also modifies the Focus RS MK2's fuel system to cope with the higher demands required at this boost/power level, using larger fuel injectors. BBR's Star Chip ECU software is then carefully calibrated in parallel with the larger fuel injectors to ensure no loss in drivability or fuel consumption penalty.

Children more distracting than phones when driving

WHILE the debate rumbles on about whether hands-free phone calls are safe to take whilst driving, new research reveals that that the number one distraction to drivers is in fact their own children.

Research conducted by motoring website, ContractHireAndLeasing.com reveals that children are by far the biggest distraction to drivers. When website visitors were asked what they found most distracting whilst driving, child passengers came top by a significant margin, taking over half of the vote (53 per cent)*. In second place 'taking hands-free phone calls' polled a measly 18 per cent of the vote.

Yet opponents to the current laws on in-car phone use say that even using a phone hands-free is not safe and constitutes a dangerous distraction to the driver**. Despite evidence that child passengers are more distracting than either phones or sat-nav systems (even adult passengers attracted a higher percentage of the vote at 14 per cent, than sat-navs which took 11 per cent), there has been little campaign support from road safety authorities to help motorists deal with the real in-car dangers; their own passengers.

The leading marketplace for contract hire cars thinks that advice should be given to drivers to help them plan journeys made with children so that they become aware of the need to make sure children are adequately catered for before setting off on a journey.

Likewise adult passengers need to be considerate to the task which the driver is undertaking to allow the driver to give full attention to the road.

Explains the website's spokesperson, Richard Lawton: "Undoubtedly people require 100 per cent mental focus when behind the steering wheel. Ensuring that children have some form of entertainment in the car is one of the best things you can do to try and keep them from misbehaving whilst in the car."

Wildcats off the bottom

Friday, August 6th - National League
WEYMOUTH WILDCATS 49
KING'S LYNN YOUNG STARS 41

A THRILLING last heat win at the Wessex Stadium gave Weymouth Wildcats victory which lifted them off the foot of the National League to be replaced by their opponents King's Lynn.

Young Stars Simon Lambert was odd-on favourite to win the heat having scored a maximum in his first five rides, but he made his only mistake of the meeting on the second turn which allowed the hard charging Wildcats pairing of James Cockle and Adam McKinna to cut through on the inside of the second bend holding on for the duration and giving the Wildcats supporters something to really cheer about; a 5-1 heat advantage, three league points and a step above their visitors in the league table with a 49-41 win.

Lambert Had showed his class from the opening heat by tearing around the inside of the Wildcats pair on turns 3 and 4. McKinna slotted in for second with Jake Knight nipping in for third after Byron Bekker fell on the second lap second bend. Heat 2 saw Richard Andrews slide off his machine with Luke Chessell unable to avoid him on the first turn; a lengthy delay followed while the medics attended to Andrews. The re-run heat was won by Young Stars Lewis Kerr with team partner Chris Widman backing up his team mate with Chessell in third giving a 3-9 advantage to the visitors.

Two 5-1 heat advantages for the Wildcats put them into the lead, firstly with Gary Cottham and Tom Brown, after Scott Campos was disqualified for touching the tapes and replaced by Kerr. James Cockle and Chessell then put the Wildcats 13-11 up in the re-run heat 4 with both Wildcats passing Adam Lowe who fell on the second turn later in the race. Lambert took his second win in heat 5 with Cottham and Brown packing in to share the points after Brown briefly led the race. Another 5-1 for the Wildcats came in heat 6 for Bekker and McKinna with the heat being awarded following Kerr's fall on the first turn of the last lap.

Two more shared heats followed with Cockle pegging back Knight and Campos in heat 7, while Lambert shone again in heat 8 taking McKinna on the inside with Chessell in third. The Wildcats still held onto their six point advantage until Lowe and Kerr took a heat advantage with Brown sandwiched between them in heat 9.

Bekker and McKinna hit back in heat 10 with a 5-1 in the re-run heat after movement at the tapes over Knight who made the start, forcing the Wildcats pair to work hard for their points to put them eight points up 34-26.

Lambert went on for win number four in heat 11 with Cockle splitting the visitors pairing. Brown headed Kerr and Campos to share the points in heat 12 with the Wildcats six up 39-33.

Cockle split the visitors pairing in heat 13 with Lambert taking his fifth and final win of the evening after Bekker fell on fourth lap second bend while in a points scoring position, the Young Stars narrowing the gap to just 4 points with two heats remaining. Heat 14 was shared with Cottham taking the win on board Andrews's bike ahead of Knight and Widman with Chessell taking the 15 metre handicap after touching the tapes.

Despite the pressure on Weymouth to gain a maximum heat advantage to move above the visitors in the league table in the last heat of the evening, they held their nerve to claim a maximum and victory.

During the meeting McKinna said "I think I've done ok, obviously getting back into racing after being on the sidelines for so long is not easy so I can't complain too much about how I've done, but I can only get better. I haven't had any problem with my neck, I had a crash with Byron which I landed on my head so I'm pretty sure my necks alright now, I still get a bit of pain in my knee from where I damaged my ligaments, I think they will just take time but it's nothing that's going to stop me racing."

Brown said after the meeting "If the top four get going we could win a lot more, but things keep happening at the wrong time, Byron had a couple of falls, I think it's just an injury prone side at the moment, but tonight really feels good, well done to the boys for getting a 5-1 to claim all 3 points. I've changed my engine now and I feel it's going really good now."

After the meeting McKinna said "I knew that we had to get the 5-1 in heat 15 and obviously no one had got near Simon all night, he just made that one mistake which was enough for me and James to get by for the 5-1 which is all that matters in the end."

"Another last heat decider, fantastic racing and good entertainment for the crowd it's nice to get off the bottom of the table. Quite clearly we needed to get that, and the 5-1 in heat 15 made it hugely entertaining for the fans to go home extremely happy," commented Wildcats chairman Phil Bartlett after the meeting.

Bright Sparks Under 18 cricket competition

THREE games have so far been played in the 2010 competition, resulting in wins for Dorchester, Portland Red Triangle and Martinstown.

The competition, designed to bridge the gap between youth and adult cricket, is in its second season and competition sponsor, Ross Moors of Bright Sparks Electrical Contractors is excited at how the 2010 season is shaping up, he said: "This years competition has been moved back until late July/August so it doesn't clash with exams and the adult evening league season. Each team will also play each other once, with a grand final between the top two sides at Dorchester Recreation Ground on Friday, August 27th.

In the curtain raiser, Portland defeated a spirited Hazelbury Bryan side by 80 runs. The Portlanders batted first with Callan Laws (31), Oliver Whisker (39 no) and Christian Brown (34) posting a total of 158 for 7. Upshall (2-22) and Horne (2-25) being the pick of the Hazelbury bowlers. T. Dudley (39 n.o) offered resistance, however Matt Randell (2-3) and S McPhail (2-3) restricted the visitors to 78 all out.

Portland looked to continue the winning streak in the following game against a strong Dorchester side in the second match, however they slumped to a 9 wicket defeat.

Portland batted first with Simon Proffitt looking in good touch until he was stumped by Nick Roe off the bowling of Cameron Lucas for 46 looking to add more sixes to the two he had already hit. Proffitt was supported in a 44 run second wicket partnership with Matt Randell (20), however six wickets fell for 30 runs limiting the islanders to 103 for 8. Cameron Lucas claimed a hat-trick and his spell only conceded three runs for the County Town. Lewis Chutter (41) and Nick Roe (34 no) effectively sealed the win with an 82 run opening partnership, before Hugh Price (7 no) joined Roe to complete the victory.

Martinstown convincingly won their first game against a weakened Portland team at Ashton thanks mainly to the bowling efforts of Ben Wood (2-14), Conor Ross (2-8) and Guy Buttle (2-1) that skittled the islanders for 41.

In response, Henry Lewis was in form for The Dons as the left hander hit a quick 15 to seal an eight wicket victory in under seven overs.

UPLYME 2nds FALL
AFTER FLYING START

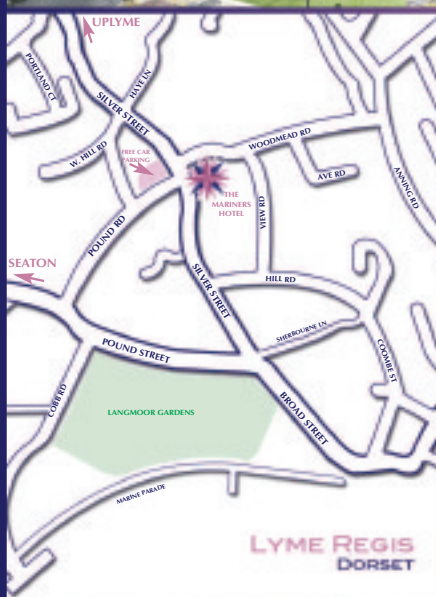

BOTTOM of the table Uplyme 2nds slipped to their 12th defeat of the season at the hands of visiting Stoke Gabriel despite being given an explosive start by openers Rob Thom (33) and Wallace Blackmore (26) in stand of 55 off just nine overs.

Once they were gone Dave Norman (29) and Mark Brimicombe (30) took up the runchase as the top four plundered 22 4s and one six.

But the rest of the side tailed-off to leave the hosts with 161 to defend.

Blackmore then cleaned up Higgins and Collings was run-out to leave Stoke tottering on 24 for 2. But unbeaten half-centuries from Taylor (64) and Tolley (51) saw the visitors ease home in just 34 overs.

With just four games remaining relegation looks assured for the East Devon outfit.

LADIES PROVIDE HIGHLIGHT OF A DISAPPOINTING WEEK

Unfortunately both mens teams lost 8-2, as did the ladies who really need to concentrate their efforts in their last two games if they are to secure a place in Division One next season.

One really bright spot was a win for the ladies in the June Culpin against favoured Dorchester who operate in a league above the Lyme ladies.

It was also a poor week for the club in the friendlies, losing both games.

LYME REGIS GOLF CLUB

WITH STEVE PERCIVAL

Sophie (14) called up for England U18s schools team

WITH the weather forecast to be changeable in the extreme hopes were not necessarily high for the successful completion of the scheduled weeks programme.

However, despite interruption of play on two days, most of the weeks important events of the week commencing August 2nd were completed successfully.

In particular the Junior open event, which suffered the occasional shower, proved to be an outstanding success with some exceptional scores carded. Played as a medal competition and with many of the participants county representative players, the overall scores recorded were impressive to say the least.

The event was eventually won by Joe Lavery of Yeovil Golf Club playing off six with a net nine under par 62. Joe also recorded the lowest gross score of the day.

In second place with a net 65 was Fraser Dawson of Fern-down Golf Club playing off five. In third place was Ben Oliver (8) with a net 67.

Best home player was Greg Matthews (5) who, although registered with Axe Cliff as his primary club, regularly represents Lyme Regis in interclub competitions carded a net three under par 68.

Other home players who scored well were George Yorke (11) and George Seed (8) who carded a net 70 and 71 respectively.

Midweek Stableford

THE weekly stableford event was played in good weather conditions with the fairways running well, albeit with some unpredictable bounces due to the firm conditions, and greens fast and true. Needless to say the recorded scores reflected the conditions.

Yet again 14-year-old George Seed featured in the top scores with 39 points playing off nine which resulted in a further reduction in his handicap to 8.1. In second place was Chris Shrubbs (20) who recorded 37 points. Third was Ed Lawrence (3) with 36 points.

Seniors Golf

FOLLOWING their defeat in the Knighton Heath trophy competition, Lyme were anxious to acquit themselves well in the away seniors match against the Dorset Golf and Country Club.

Although neither club fielded their strongest possible team, the match was scheduled to be a closely contested event.

Furthermore, the host team was expected to make full use of local knowledge on what is a very unforgiving course.

Faced with pouring rain at the start of the match some of the players on both teams were not optimistic for an enjoyable round of golf.

However, that rain soon abated and most of the matches were completed unhindered until the very end when the rain descended again.

Whilst the Lyme team played well as individuals and teams, the only pair to notch up a victory were captain of the day Jim Dick and his playing partner John Toates who carded an excellent 6-4 win.

The other matches were either lost by one or halved giving an overall 3-3 draw - a very creditable result for both teams but particularly for the visiting side.

Both teams now look forward to the return match at Lyme on September 15th.

LYME REGIS LADIES

by Ellie Langford
August Medal and Grannies Shield: August 5th

The course was still hard and dry allowing to the ball to run on, this together with the lack of wind created ideal conditions for some substantial handicap reductions.

Medal results - Division 1: 1 Sue Davidge 71; 2 Flicity Poole 72; 3 Elizabeth Thompson 73. Division 2: 1 Elenor Sturgeon 67; 2 Mary Rogers 70; 3 Jennifer Pollard 71. Division Three: 1 Susan Moore 64; 2 Jocelyn Marsh 70; 3 Emma Davies 72. Winner of the Grannies Shield was Eleanor Sturgeon with nett 67; Runner up was Mary Rodgers with nett 70.

Ladies Open Three-Ball Team Event two scores to count. August 3rd. The Open was fully subscribed with ladies teeing off from 8.15am until 2.30 pm.

The weather was kind being neither too hot nor too cold and as usual the greens staff had the course looking and playing very well.

Results: 1 Gail Tilson, Mary Round and Linda Holden; Fern-down 94 pts. 2 Margaret Swift, Jenny Manley and Margaret Addis; Parkstone 88 pts ocb. 3 Pauline Young; Farrington; Maureen Charlton and Di Ouzman; Bristol & Clifton 88 pts. 4 Kay King and Amanda Winsor; Fingle Glen, Kath Mansell; Oakhampton 87 pts. 5 Ada Ford, Mary Chafferkey and Brenda Rosindell; Came Down 86 pts. 6 Ann Thornton, Sylvia Kent and Mary Pryor; Broadstone 85 ocb. 7 Pamela Jarrett, Jan Brown King and Janet Milford; Exeter 85 pts.

Sophie Keech, with a handicap of three, put in a gutsy performance in the National U15 Girls Golf Championship at Market Rasen, Lincolnshire. She finished strongly in a very competitive field with some of the Nation's top under 15 girl golfers.

The stroke play event was decided over four rounds. There were 86 starters and after the first two rounds 40 players, including Sophie, made the cut and went on to play two more rounds. Sophie scored 77 in each of these and finished a very respectable 13th overall.

◆ SOPHIE Keech has been selected to play for The England Schools Team at Marriot St Pierre where she will get her first England Cap and will be classed as an England School U18 International player at just 14. She will be playing for England schools against Wales.

WEYMOUTH BEACH RUGBY FESTIVAL

Young Mini's hold their own in beach rugby festival

FOR the ninth year running Weymouth hosted the increasingly popular Beach Rugby Festival, part of the England RFU 'Play On' campaign, and once again it was a big hit.

The event which brings together teams from across the South of England to play tag rugby against each other on the beach attracted sixteen teams.

On a glorious day, teams from North Dorset, Dorchester and Weymouth were joined by two invitational sides London (Hitz Squad and London Italians) in four pools or four with their position at the end of the first round of games deciding if you went on to play for the cup, shield, plate or bowl. Some of the mornings games entertained the crowd both for the rugby on display and sportsmanship from everybody concerned.

London Italians showed fair play and a more equal situation by handicapping themselves against younger teams, whilst Weymouth and Dorchester Mini's held their own against the older more experienced teams.

Weymouth 1st's won the cup, with Dorchester claiming the shield. North Dorset 1 were winners of the plate whilst North Dorset 2 won the bowl competition. Event's Organiser Chris Davis said: "It was a great day's sport played in the right spirit with some fantastic games of tag rugby."

He added: "A special thank you to the RFU personnel for their hard work organising the day, and the Dorset and Wilts Referee's Society for supplying the officials."

"We would also like to thank the New Vic public house for supplying lunch to all of the volunteers on the day."

Teams involved: Weymouth 1st, Weymouth Pirates, Team Keenan, Hitz Squad, Seven Dwarfs, Weymouth u13's, London Italians, Weymouth Mini's, James's Warriors, North Dorset (2 teams), Dorchester Mini's, Dorchester (2 teams), Blandford and Dorchester ladies.

Harwood survives late challenge to win boat festival

COMFORTABLY ahead at the end of the first day of the Jurassic Open Boat Festival, West Bay Sea Angling club's Steve Harwood survived a late challenge from Dave Morris to win the event with a red gurnard (108 per cent) and a pout (104 per cent).

The two day challenge only allowed competitors to bring one of each species of fish back to the scales each day with the result based on the cumulative percentage of specimen weight of the best two fish from both days.

Saturday saw 28 competitors fishing from eleven boats in south-westerly winds which throughout the day got stronger making the sea choppy.

Harwood returned to shore with a red gurnard weighing 610g and a pout (1kg 440g) to lead the field comfortably. Sunday dawned with lighter westerly winds and better fishing conditions. A cautious Harwood set off in the last of the boats containing 33 competitors to ensure none of the others followed him to where he had snared his two the day before.

However Morris meanwhile had caught a stingray which it was thought might challenge Harwood's position, but the 15kg 910g fish was not quite heavy enough to snatch first spot, and although good enough to take the Sunday prize could not earn him overall victory.

The species caught included pout, cuckoo wrasse, ballan wrasse, dogfish, poor cod, dab, red gurnard, dragonet, tub gurnard, pollack, conger eel and thornback ray.

Struggling Weymouth heading towards drop

DORSET FUNERAL PLAN LEAGUE
Premier League
Wimborne & Colehill 189 all out lost to Dorchester 184-7
by 3 wickets (reduced target)

FOLLOWING the disappointment of consecutive defeats to their nearest rivals which has shattered their chances of winning the Premier League this season, Dorchester ground out a three wicket victory over Wimborne & Colehill to keep themselves in the mix should either Poole Town or Parley slip up.

After the home side had made a good start with openers Colin Randall and Andy Hayward putting on 74 for the first wicket, Dorchester fought back to dismiss their hosts for 189 with Andy Mead, playing with a broken left hand leading from the front.

Mead broke the partnership getting Randall caught by Martyn Richards one short of his half century, and after Hayward (20) was run out, Mead combined with Paul Tweddle for the first of three identical dismissals to remove Cole (4) and leave Wimborne on 90-3.

Justin Perry (33) stabilised the innings but with only Greg Cormack (24) and James Miller (16) showing any resistance they lost wickets steadily with Mead claiming 4-64, with Rob Waite (2-20) and Dan Belt (2-27) in support.

Rain delayed Dorchester's reply which resulted in a reduced target of 184 off 44 overs.

Although they lost Pete Moxom (3) early on, Steve Gerety and Lee Haynes added 76 for the second wicket to put Dorchester in the driving seat. However after Gerety was dismissed for a solid 52, there was a middle order wobble, as Belt (0), Waite (12), Tweddle (13), Richards (8) and Jon Legge (2) all succumbed as Hayward (3-22) and Dan Hills (3-35) put Wimborne back in with a fighting chance.

However Haynes dug in for an excellent unbeaten 74 to guide the county town home with six overs to spare with the support of 17-year-old Ian Legge (3no).

Weymouth 154 all out lost to Blandford 171-9 by 17 runs

WEYMOUTH slipped to their second consecutive defeat, and with only two wins in their last ten games have slipped to fourth bottom and into the relegation battle.

With three matches remaining it would appear that the Seasideers have to win at least one of them as Wimborne & Colehill, who are immediately below them, have to play the bottom clubs Marnhull and Ferndown Wayfarers in their next two matches.

This again was a match that Weymouth should have won.

Having lost to bottom side Marnhull last week, it looked like they had the beating of Blandford having restricted them to 171-9, but after an opening stand of 40 from skipper Paul Payne (9) and Jim Ryall (16), they were dismissed 17 runs short of their target.

A superb stint in the field on an excellent Redlands wicket gave rise to the chance of victory as Michael Pearce (2-41) claimed opener Luke Carter (25) and then caught Jim Woodruff (9) off the bowling of Andrew Falloon (2-29).

With support from Sean Fitzgerald (3-40) and Laurie Whyte (2-26), wickets tumbled regularly with Alex White (41) and Oliver Trowbridge (20 not out) Blandford's main stays.

Weymouth however also failed to find a batsman capable of putting together a decent innings, and only Jonny Armfield (21), Will McKay (20) and Matt Lawes (26) showed any real threat, as the Seasideers succumbed to House (3-21), Kevin Robbins (3-29) and Shepherd (2-27) to help Blandford climb above Weymouth in the league.

Division One
Beaminster v Shroton – no result ground unfit

A DELUGE on Saturday morning left the Beaminster wicket little time to recover, and although Shroton travelled to the Memorial Playing Fields, the umpires deemed the wicket unfit.

The decision didn't help Beaminster as Ferndown Wayfarers 2nds beat high flying Bournemouth and leapfrogged them to leave them once again rock bottom.

Sherborne 157-2 beat Weymouth 2nd 156 all out by 8 wickets

SKIPPER John Ryan used ten bowlers, including wicketkeeper Keiron Womble as he tried to rescue as many points as he could out of a match in which his side were well beaten.

Desperate to add a bowling point to the three batting acquired in a total of 156 all out, Ryan was literally hamstrung when opening bowler Neil Walton pulled up with a hamstring injury in the over prior to him bowling, and then his replacement Faraj Ulhaq was also injured whilst bowling.

Ryan got his wish with the scores tied, Simon Mitchem's offcutter trapped M Lock (22) leg before wicket. However Lee Hancock's unbeaten 86 saw Sherborne home, Weymouth's only other success with the ball was V J Mote bowling fellow opener Daniel Baker (45). Rain and drizzle until five minutes before the start meant the toss was crucial, and Sherborne took advantage of winning it by inserting Weymouth on a damp wicket despite it being covered.

Even so Mitchem (15) and Ulhaq (21) added 40 for the first wicket and although the approach was cautious the Seasideers were happy at drinks with the score standing at 81-1 at drinks.

However they lost wickets soon after the break and once Womble (27) had gone, only Ben Ladd-Gibbon with 33 and Chris Lawes (15) had any success against some tight bowling.

Ryan added: "The toss was crucial; I would have put them in had I won the toss. Ben Ladd-Gibbon once again showed good technique and composure with his second score in a row of 30 plus and was the one bright spot in our team."

Division Two
Dorchester 2nd 143-2 beat Witchampton
150-9 by 8 wickets (reduced target)

THIS victory just about ensured Division Two cricket for Dorchester 2nds next season. They now sit comfortably in midtable after a comprehensive victory over second bottom Witchampton, running out easy eight wicket winners.

Division Three
Bridport 33 all out lost to Parley 2nd 201 all out by 168 runs

BRIDPORT now look in serious trouble after this crushing defeat, and could be relegated for the fourth successive season.

They managed a paltry 33 all out in reply to Parley 2nds 201 all out.

With Suttoners 2nds almost certainly relegated, Bridport and Pavillion Sports are fighting it out to avoid joining them. Both sides meet Martinstown and Cattistock in their remaining three fixtures, but Pavillion Sports who are currently above Bridport play Suttoners on the last day of the season.

Martinstown 147 all out lost to Parley 2nd 151 all out by 4 runs

MARTINSTOWN went down by just four runs in an exciting match against second place Parley 2nds.

After brilliantly dismissing the visitors for 151 all out, Martinstown just fell short of snatching an unexpected win.

Division Four
Beaminster 2nds 183 for 7 lost to Hamworthy 2nds 187 for 5 by four runs.

(Game reduced to 40 overs per side due to delayed start because of rain.)

Hamworthy attacked from the start, and with rain falling, Beaminster struggled to control the run rate.

The hosts raced to 73 for no loss after 10 overs but as soon as Dean Hyett took his first wicket of the season, after handing Shaun Annetts the wicket keeping gloves for the day, Beaminster were back in the game. Hamworthy ended on 187 for 5 off 40 overs thanks to a great performance in the field from all 10 Beaminster players. Mark Barber, Hyett and Haycon Edgeley all took wickets. Tom Hounsell, on debut, caught the first wicket to fall to set a high standard which everyone followed.

Unfortunately the Beaminster chase started poorly yet again and the top order departed without causing too many problems to the scoreboard. With the score on 26 for 4, thanks largely to two superb catches at gully, Hyett and Hounsell entered the crease. Both batted superbly, making a stand of 76 for the fifth wicket. When Hyett eventually fell on 52, Hounsell took up the task hitting seven boundaries in his innings before being bowled for 55.

Stuart Lindsey (32no) and Dan Down (15no) kept up the chase but the visitors eventually ran out of overs finishing just four runs short.

Division Five
Weymouth 3rd 153 all out lost to Winton Sports 2nd 164 all out
by 11 runs

WEYMOUTH 3rds held on to top spot despite defeat by closest rivals Winton Sports 2nd's.

The defeat by 11 runs, only the Seasideers second of the season leaves them just 0.17 points ahead of their Bournemouth rivals. Both sides have relatively easy run ins, and both should get promotion. It is a matter of whether Weymouth can match Winton's points to stay ahead.

Division Six
Ferndown Wayfarers 4th 147-8
beat Abbotsbury 146-6 by 2 wickets

THE holiday season and injuries again took their toll on Abbotsbury as they travelled to Ferndown with only nine players including Debbie Budd. Even wicket-keeper Mick Lydford was absent, the first game he has missed for three seasons, meaning Frank Pittman had to deputise behind the stumps.

Asked to bat first after losing the toss, and with all their top stroke makers unavailable, the Abbotsbury batsmen struggled throughout on a slow pitch against some accurate bowling, particularly from John Bonney, whose twelve overs cost only 15 runs for two wickets.

Frank Pittman scored a dogged 40 before being unfortunately run out after he stumbled turning for a second and Dave Leach rolled back the years with a measured 42 not out. Debbie Budd contributed a useful 13 as the Swans reached 146-6 in their allotted overs.

Grafton Straker again bowled well to take 3 early Ferndown wickets, and with Marcus Evans chipping in with a nice caught and bowled, the hosts were in trouble at 26-4.

However Steve Thomas (60 not out) and John Macintyre (38) then exposed the lack of depth in Abbotsbury's bowling, before skipper Frank Pittman then handed his wicket-keeping duties to Dave Jewell, and he and Debbie Budd gave the visitors some hope with a brace apiece.

Unfortunately for Abbotsbury Thomas and Bonney steered Ferndown home in the very last over to give them a welcome first victory of the season.

Bridport 2nds 112 all out beat Sturminster Marshall 87 all out
by 25 runs.

BRIDPORT 2nds put in what skipper Jamie Dollman described as: "Our best performance of the season" after losing the toss and being inserted on a green-looking track at Sturminster Marshall.

Once again the father and son combo of Rod and Duane Gay got Bridport off to a steady start putting on 20 for the first wicket.

But once they were parted the wickets started to tumble. At 57 for 9 things looked really bleak for Dollman's side. But Pete Bustin, who was the only man to come to grips with the track, found a n 11th hour ally in Jack Walklett.

Walklett finished 0 not out but made a vital contribution as the last pair added 55 with Bustin cracking a superb 65 (11x4s, 2 x 6s).

The hosts' reply shadowed the Bridport effort with a 24-run opening stand before a torrent of wickets. But there was to be no late rescue act as all the visiting bowlers enjoyed some success particularly Ashley Parker (4 for 24) and Man-of-the-Match Bustin (3 for 19).

SUPER KNOCK | Pete Bustin more than half of Bridport 2nds 112.

Dorchester 3rd 135-3 beat Wareham 133 all out by 7 wickets

DORCHESTER gained revenge for their early season defeat with a convincing seven wicket victory over a strong Wareham first team and now require two victories from their remaining three games to gain promotion for the third season in a row.

Rob Pering (50 not out) was the batting hero with an unbeaten half-century. Opening the batting he fittingly hit the winning runs which gave him his half-century in only the 30th over.

Dorchester struck early with Jae Miller removing the dangerous "run machine" Steve Bishop for a duck; Bishop has notched three centuries already this season and scored over 600 runs.

Ed Parkes and Ollie Britt (19) took the score patiently to 47 before fourteen year old debutant Taylor Quinten bowled Britt with a classical away swinger, pitching on leg stump and taking out the off stump.

Dorchester's excellent bowling continually restricted the Wareham batsmen, and it was the combination of left arm spinner Rhys Cole and Jacob Holland who claimed the important wicket of Ed Parkes for 45 with the score on 81-3.

This led to a mid order collapse as Wareham tried to push their score forward as Wareham capitulated to 118-8 as captain Pete Tucker (3-33) bowled Pope and Hector for ducks and then 14-year-old spinner Sam Roles (3-34) struck twice having Beard (3) well caught behind and Harris brilliantly caught by Jamie Quinten at short square leg high above his head. There was a quick fire 12 from Mark Collier including a big six off Tucker before the Wareham innings came to an end on 133 with a direct hit by Rhys Cole.

In reply the Dorchester innings started badly with Will Hector sending senior batsmen Jae Miller and Tom Cottrell back to the pavilion with only 11 runs on the board. This brought together Pering and Jamie Quinten who both batted superbly; cutting, driving and pulling to all parts of the ground off a bowling attack which could easily play in a higher standard of cricket.

The 58 run partnership came to an end with the score on 71-3 when Steve Bishop had Quinten (29) caught at mid wicket mistiming a pull shot. The final match winning partnership of 64 between Pering and Mat King saw Dorchester home in the 30th over.

Pete Tucker said "Rob Pering was asked to open the batting and keep wicket and jumped at the chance. He kept well and batted brilliantly, showing great patience and maturity but also aggressive when required. To carry your bat through an innings is always difficult but against some excellent hostile bowling showed great character.

"Rob was well supported firstly by Jamie Quinten who continued his good form with the bat and then by an unsung hero of the third team bowling attack, Mat King. Mat was able to give the innings the impotence to complete the victory so early and show his true all-round ability. It was brilliant to see the younger lads step up to the mark in such an important game in the promotion run in."

Division Eight (S & W)
Portland Red Triangle 2nd 223 all out beat Martinstown 2nd 221-9 all out
by 2 runs

MARTINSTOWN 2nds just failed to reach the target set by Portland Red Triangle 2nds going down by just two runs with the last pair at the wicket.

Sunday Division Four Symene 187 all out lost to Dewlish 264-7 by 77 runs

SYMENE, like in the reverse fixture earlier in the season could perhaps have had more success against the league leaders.

Dewlish were struggling at 47-3 after 15 overs following the opening salvo from Colin Willcox (2-43) and Liam Toohill (1-59), but first change bowlers Nigel Toohill and Nick Skyrme were carted for 47 runs in the next four overs allowing the visitors to regain the initiative from which they never looked back.

They finally amassed 164-7 off their 45 overs with Dan Belt (43), S Ross (43), Jae Miller (38) and Quinten Miller (56 not out) all plundering runs. Whilst Marcel Grunschloss (3-81) snared three wickets he came in for some treatment as well.

Symene made good progress in reply and with Liam Toohill with an excellent 76 leading the way, supported by Grunschloss (54) and skipper Richard Keech (36) they were handily placed to spring a surprise.

However when the Grunschloss/Keech partnership was breached, wickets tumbled with Belt (3-15) and Quinten Miller (2-15) mopping up the tail, and with Mark Tozer unable to bat due to an injury sustained whilst fielding, Symene eventually fell 77 runs short.

READERS MID-WESSEX LEAGUE
Division One

Long Sutton 153 all out lost to Broadwindsor 191-8 by 38 runs
BROADWINDSOR recorded a good victory over third place Long Sutton to maintain second spot.

Despite a century opening stand by Chris Park (62) and Steve Phillips (42) it looked like it was in vain as the hosts were coasting at 140-2. However Adie Phillips (2-38) struck, clean bowling their two danger men I Palmer (60) and S Cook (44), before Richie Runyard (4-20) cleaned out the tail as Long Sutton lost their last eight wickets for just 13 runs.

Runyard was also in the runs adding 33 to Parks and Phillips' opening stand of 111 as Broadwindsor set a target of 191-8 off their allotted overs.

Skipper Adie Phillips was pleased with the win. "It wasn't an easy wicket, but we put in a good all round performance to keep ourselves ahead of a good team."

Clarke's thunderbolt sees Bridport off to a flyer

BRIDPORT 2 BRADFORD TOWN 0
Attendance: 115

BRIDPORT got the start manager Trevor Senior hoped following a successful pre-season when a goal in each half from Chris Clarke and Ryan Dovell sealed a well deserved victory in their opening Toolstation Western League One game of the season at St Mary's Field.

Despite the absence of Dan Wise; best man at his brother's wedding; Senior's charges showed that they could well be a force to reckon with this season.

Bradford Town finished fourth last campaign and are expected to do equally as well this season, so this victory will have sent a message to all the other teams that the Bees could be serious contenders for promotion.

Adam Symes might have got the Bees off to a great start after just two minutes, but his volley just cleared the bar.

Bradford Town then showed their quality by creating two excellent chances. Sam Filkins, who has showed great composure and assuredness as deputy to Jamie Fry whilst he recovers from a hand injury, pulled off two excellent saves. However he could only block the second which rolled to a visiting forward, but with the goal at his mercy he could only shoot against the crossbar and over the goal.

Then Chris Senior, despite being on the ground managed to clear Dave Percival's shot off the line to safety.

This apart, the Bradford Town attack was well held by a solid Bees defence, and although slightly against the run of play, Bridport took the lead four minutes before the break.

Clarke playing up front alongside Dovell controlled the ball on the left hand corner of the penalty area before unleashing a diagonal shot that screamed into the top right angle of the goal.

Senior urged his side to close down their opponents quicker at their half time talk, an order they followed implicitly, and Bridport dominated the second half.

Both Matt Moors and Dovell had chances before the latter sealed victory with his first competitive goal for the club 12 minutes from the end.

Moors did well to track back and win the ball. Senior went down injured clearing up the loose ball but the referee ignored pleas to stop the game and Matt Condliffe fed Dovell who broke free of the visiting defence. Although keeper Lewis Porter blocked his first effort he followed up to ensure all three points.

Jamie Symes could have added a third just before the end but headed over the bar.

Manager Senior said: "Bradford are a good side, and I am sure they will be there or there about again this season, so it was a good win and the start we wanted."

"Although it was the first goal of the season, I doubt whether you will see any better than Chris Clarke's effort; it went like an arrow into the top corner."

"I told the lads at half time that they needed to get closer to their players and stop them playing, and they did that superbly. Our fitness looked good and it was an excellent all round team performance. However we need to keep it going at Elmore on Wednesday."

Hill double downs Terras
WEYMOUTH 1
DORCHESTER TOWN 3

BOTH managers came away from their last pre-season friendly with differing thoughts.

Three goals in the last 14 minutes gave saw Dorchester turn a poor first half performance into victory, whilst Weymouth's new look side were punished for three late lapses from set pieces after they had led for much of the match.

Maggies manager Ashley Vickers was disappointed with his team's first half display that saw them go behind to a Sam Charles goal in the 13th minute, and it was only after some harsh half time talking and a change of personnel that the Blue Square Conference side finally won through.

"I thought we were very poor in the first half. Despite it being a pre-season friendly there is still a lot of local pride and passion, and several of our players got drawn into a style of play which was not what we wanted. A good result still holds a lot of sway locally, and some players got involved with that in the first half."

"We were much better after the break and got to grips with the job. We got more width, got closer to them and in the end steamrollered them. To be fair we were on a hiding to nothing. We were expected to beat them, but had we slipped up there would have been plenty with something to say."

Terras boss Ian Hutchinson was pleased with his side's display, although disappointed that they lost the game to goals from set pieces.

"We had lots of possession and competed for long periods. We defended well from open play but let ourselves down in the end from set pieces."

"Having said that, if we perform as we did in the first half we should be ok. You have to remember that we are working on a shoestring budget here and Dorchester have a number of quality players."

"We dominated for periods of the game, but the introduction of Nick Crittenden at half time caused us problems and he made the difference."

Former Magpie Jules Emati-Emati gave early notice with a shot that curled over the bar in the first minute before another former player Sam Charles gave the Terras the lead.

There was plenty of passion as well as Terras Bradley MaGookin, was booked along with Ryan Hill and former Terras defender Kyle Critchell.

A Hill free-kick which struck the outside of the post following a deflection was the nearest Dorchester got to scoring in the first half.

Hill eventually equalised on 76 minutes with a low free-kick before repeating the feat with just seven minutes to go.

Stuart Douglas, who played 16 games for the Terras two years ago completed the scoring against his former club when he headed home Steve Devlin's corner at the near post.

Both managers were complimentary after the game.

Vickers said: "Hutch is a good man and has put together a competitive side despite all the problems he has had with budgets, and I think they should do well this season."

Hutch believes that Dorchester will also do well. "Ash has got a good, experienced squad of players and I would expect them to have a much improved season."

WARRIORS SET THE MARK

FORMED only two years ago, West Dorset Warriors Junior Water Polo Club is celebrating after completing a successful season in the Dorset County ASA Mini Water Polo League, which they can build on for future seasons.

The Under 11 team won all but two of their games to finish runners-up, only being beaten by a more experienced side from Christchurch, beating long established clubs from Bridport and Blandford on their way.

The team were presented with their medals at a recent ceremony held at the Thomas Hardy Leisure Centre by Dave Bradley, Chairman of the Dorset County ASA Mini Water Polo League. Cameron Dabbs was the team's top goal scorer and Kriss Radijosa voted Player of the Year for his all round contribution to the team.

The Under 14s Team finished a respectable fourth in their League, competing against sides who have been playing together as a team for a much longer time. George Askew was the team's top goal scorer and Louis Smallwood received the well earned Player of the Year award.

Coaches Leah Wistrand and Andrea Dabbs are to be congratulated for the hard work they have put into the club over its first two years since formation, and have been rewarded by their two team's performance in the pool. Throughout the club every boy and girl can be proud of what they have achieved in such a short period of time.

The Club, based at the Thomas Hardy Leisure Centre in Dorchester, train for 45 minutes a week throughout the year in preparation of the League season which runs from September to June. They are affiliated to the West Dorset Warriors Swimming Club and welcome new members of all abilities

Having a ball on the beach

Bridport Under-13s give beach football tournament a thumbs up

THREE Bridport U-13 teams took part in this year's Youth Beach Sport and Sand Soccer tournament held on Weymouth beach recently and declared it a huge hit.

The annual beach sports festival is organised by Weymouth and Portland Borough Council's leisure and events teams, with support from the Dorset Football Association and involved 14 teams from around Dorset.

GOOD FUN | Photos by Mini Warren

Bridport U-13s manager Terry Warren said: "The games are fast and furious. The 10 minute four-a-side matches are played barefoot with a light ball on soft sand which makes for a lot of unpredictability. "The boys all had a fantastic time and I'd like to thank the parents for helping and the Dorset County FA for organising such a unique, fun day."

Which job comes first?
And next?
It's our job to know.

Terry Collin fund boosts Paul

PAUL Blake celebrated the anniversary of his decision to try and further his athletics career by receiving his first sponsorship from the Terry Collin Fund yesterday (Tuesday).

Paul and his mother Kate travelled to Beaminster from their home in Charlton Down to accept a cheque for £2000 to help towards his training from members of the fund committee.

The Terry Collin Fund was set up in memory of the former Bridport News sports editor to help disabled sportsmen and sportswomen by his sisters Heather, Anna and Mary and former Bridport News editor David Cozens.

The family were alerted to Paul's situation having read a story in the View From Beaminster and recognised Paul as exactly the type of person the fund was set up to help.

Paul who was born a quadriplegic became frustrated at the facilities available for disabled athletes, and in frustration realising his potential registered to run in a disabled race. He currently holds the world record for the 1500m and has set the best time this year for the 800m in his class and is strongly fancied to win gold medals in both events in the 2012 Olympics in London having been

Paul personally thanked the committee for their generosity. "I am very grateful to the Terry Collin Fund for this sponsorship, and the money will go a long way towards the cost of training with the GB team."

The committee wished Paul good luck and Heather said: "He has shown such determination to overcome his disabilities and to have the chance of a gold medal at the 2012 Olympics is a wonderful achievement. Terry would have been full of admiration for him."

Paul returns to Crystal Palace this weekend for the same meeting, where he will compete in the 800m, 400m and 4x100m races.
